

Mr. Tan Soon Heng Biographical Profile

Mr. Tan Soon Heng is a Research Officer in EAI. He received his B.A., B. Soc. (Honors), and M. Soc. Sc. (Applied Sociology) from the National University of Singapore. Trained as a sociologist, he has participated in a few research projects in the university's Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences before joining EAI. He also double-majored in Japanese Studies as an undergraduate and is able to read and converse in basic Japanese. His current research interests are wide-encompassing, and include globalization, sociological theory, mass media and politics, and both Eastern and Western philosophy. Apart from the academia, he is also interested in entrepreneurship in the Singapore context.