Preparing for SEP

ROAD MAP

- Set personal goals
- Find out about host destinations
- Plan itinerary
- Work out budget

After applying with your host university

- Read pre-departure guide
- Attend country briefing

While waiting for your acceptance package

- Follow instructions in acceptance package (read carefully & meet deadlines)
- Apply for visa
- Book accommodation
- Make travel arrangements

Upon receiving your acceptance package
Preparing for SEP

STUDY PLAN

• Complete the module mapping process via the NUS Student Information System (select Self Service – External Study).

• Include some spare modules in your study list in case you are unable to secure your preferred modules or when your enrolled module(s) has been cancelled.

• Should there be any changes to your study plan, seek approval from your home faculty immediately.
Preparing for SEP

PASSPORT & FLIGHT

- Ensure that passport is valid for 6 months after your intended date-of-return from SEP.
- Do NOT confirm flight booking until you have received the acceptance from the host university and gotten your visa.
- Arrive at least 2 weeks before study period and attend orientation programme.
Preparing for SEP

VISA (Denmark)

- Study period for exchange > 3 months => Application: Residence Permit (ST1 form)
- You have received a letter of acceptance from Host University to apply for Residence Permit

- Proof of financial ability to support your stay and study; as of Apr 2017 min. of DKK 6015 (~S$1210)/month; proof of financial ability for 6 months necessary for SEP
- Make sure to extend your passport if it is about to expire — you cannot obtain a permit for longer than your passport's period of validity
- Open a case order ID before submission of application; appointment is required for application submission; fees (open case ID + consular fee) add up to about S$760
- You must have obtained your residence permit before entering Denmark
- Check the Danish Embassy’s website regularly for updates
Denmark

- After obtaining your residence permit or certificate, apply for Danish CPR number (Danish security number)
  - For stay > 3 months, notify the municipal authorities of your intent to stay by contacting your local Citizen Service Centre (Borgerservice) to register for the CPR number. Once you have informed receive a CPR number, you are included in the general Danish health insurance scheme;
  - A few weeks after registration at Citizen Service, you will receive Health Insurance Card showing your name, address and CPR number.
  - The Danish insurance scheme / Health Securities Act does not cover evacuation, repatriation, or personal liability, therefore, separate personal travel insurance is highly recommended.
Preparing for SEP

• Partner University application instructions and university information: https://share.nus.edu.sg/ng/Partner%20University%20SEP%20application%20material%20for%20s/Forms/AllItems.aspx

• Read seniors’ reports of host university: https://share.nus.edu.sg/ng/SEP%20Report/Forms/AllItems.aspx

Denmark = the 2nd happiest country in the world by 2017 World Happiness Report

Social balance, equality, low level of corruption and transparency, universal welfare services

National goals towards creating a green and sustainable society
  - More than 20% of Denmark's energy already comes from RE, and the goal is to reach 100% by 2050
  - in 2014 Denmark produced 57.4% of its net electricity generation from RE sources

Strong cycling culture
  - Copenhagen - around 400km of cycle paths
  - About 40% of the capital's population commute to work by bicycle
WEATHER (WINTER / SPRING)

- Winter (Dec to Feb) and Spring (Mar to May)
- Air will be dry – put on lots of moisturiser.
- Have a good coat with you; the weather can change rapidly and it can be expensive to buy winter wear at your host country.
- You may experience gloominess because you are not used to the short days and cold weather.
- Weather gets warmer towards the end of your SEP, but still cold by Singapore’s standards (max. hovers around the low 20s celsius).
What to Expect at Your Destination

LIFESTYLE

• Pace of life is slower with shorter working hours and a weekend spent with a long brunch or just chilling out is not unusual
• Punctuality is a norm and if you are late, you are supposed to have a better reason than just “I lost track of time”
• Locals are generally helpful but might not take the initiative to make small talk so be thick-skinned, smile and start a conversation
• Danes are generally direct, honest and straight to the point
• Walking and cycling culture is very strong
• Partner universities usually have student clubs, organise excursion activities, have sports activities from the beginner’s to advanced level - don’t miss the opportunity to exercise and make friends
COST OF LIVING

- You should work out a budget covering accommodation, food, transport, clothing & entertainment.

- Estimated cost of living:

  Denmark @ DKK 6,100 to DKK 11,000 per month

  (approx. SGD 1,300 – SGD 2,400)

  1 DKK= S$ 0.20

  Exchange rate as of November 2019 (via Google)

- You can save money by shopping at local supermarkets, buying tickets in advance and taking budget airlines.
COST OF LIVING – SENIORS’ TIPS

- Cook!
- Enjoy student discounts/privileges (with your student card)
- Consider eating in school
- The nearest grocery store might not be the cheapest
- Plan your trips in advance to save cost
- Source for alternative means of traveling (e.g. bus rides instead of flights, buying a bike, etc.)
- Use apps that will give you discounts
Apply as soon as you receive email on school accommodation
Accommodation (especially for city campuses) are in short supply and run out quickly

Get in touch with host university if unable to secure school accommodation
Airbnb is not your only option; the International Office in general are willing to help you/suggest housing if unable to secure school accommodation.

Keep your room neat
• Not every hostel has a housekeeping service
• Some hostels conduct spot checks
• You might forfeit your deposit if you leave your room in a mess when you leave

Check the location of your room
There might be different campuses and hostels located across the city – make sure you know where you’re staying before signing on.
Different academic culture
- Lecturers expect a 2-way conversation, and students are not afraid to speak up during classes
- You are expected to learn independently, do your own readings and not just rely on lecture notes
- You can take a module and drop it weeks later without penalty

Don’t assume that classes will be easier
- It’s still possible to fail classes while on exchange
- In some schools, there is the option of an intensive, shorter period modules
- You might have an oral exam instead of a written one
- Notes are written on chalkboard and not uploaded
- Longer school term with more covered

Secure modules and keep track of school work
- Map extra modules – the module list can vary greatly from year to year, or change when the semester starts
- Check if you might need to email the lecturer or just turn up in classes to secure the module, in addition to/in lieu of registering online
- You might need to register for modules twice (module conducted across two blocs)

MAKING THE MOST OF YOUR SEMESTER

• Don’t just stick to Singaporeans! Make an effort to meet different people and be open-minded about differences.

• Even while having fun, make sure you are aware of any important academic dates and not miss any deadlines!

• Take note of your exam dates. If your semester overseas overlaps with the new NUS semester, start making arrangements for early exam or alternative assessments. If neither is possible, apply for an extension of your leave of absence from NUS.

• Activate the email account given by your host university to receive important notices and announcements.

• Check both host university and NUS email frequently.

• Always stay in touch with your family and friends back home.

• If a problem arises, try to resolve it. However, if you are unable to, ask for help.
Settling In

MITIGATING CULTURE SHOCK

- Recognise feelings of surprise, disorientation, confusion, etc. is normal and okay
  1. Honeymoon phase
  2. Negotiation phase
  3. Adaption phase
- Talk to friends or a counselor
- Keep in regular contact with friends and family back home
- Join university and community activities
EXPECTED CONDUCT

- Respect others and behave respectably too.
- You are representing yourself, your school and your country.
- Obey laws and regulations of host country, host university, Singapore and NUS.
- Read rules and regulations at host university and ensure that you do not violate them. (e.g. rules on plagiarism and cheating)
- Do not be pressured into anything. Just because everyone is doing it, doesn’t make it right. Be comfortable being your own person.

SAFETY

- Safety should be the priority in all that you do.
- Assess the risk of what you are about to do and try to minimise and even avoid unnecessary risk.
- If confronted, give up your valuables and do not resist as your safety is the most important.
- Ask locals about any dangerous areas or locations that should be avoided.
In the event of an attack, adopt the following:

1. RUN (if escape is possible)
   1. Consider the safest route
   2. Move quickly and quietly
   3. Stay out of view of the attackers
   4. Insist others leave with you
   5. Leave your belongings behind

2. HIDE (if escape is not possible)
   1. Find cover from gunfire and stay out of sight
   2. Lock yourself in, but do not get trapped
   3. If you are unable to lock the doors/entrances, place objects such as tables or cupboards behind the doors or entrances to prevent access of attackers
   4. Move away from doors
   5. Be very quiet and switch your phone to silent mode

3. TELL
   - Provide details about the attackers (Total number of attackers, Equipment or weapons being carried, Look of the attackers, Location of attackers (where they are now and moving towards)
   - If it is safe to do so, stop others from going towards danger areas
   - Follow the police’s instructions and do not make any sudden movements
