<td>Academic Content</td>
<td>Designed to inspire students to be global citizens, this course presents comprehensive insights into South African history, politics, culture, social justice and social entrepreneurship. The course connects the past to the present, discussing opportunities and challenges of transformation facing the country, the African continent and the world today. Through engagement and immersion in the local Cape Town context, students will reflect on values of social justice and responsibility, gaining insights into the interconnectivity between their own societies and the rest of the world. Visits to historical, heritage and entrepreneurial community sites will allow students to experience the vibrant and diverse cultures that influence and shape the character of Cape Town and South Africa, as well as expose students to</td> innovative initiatives communities are undertaking to seek solutions to social issues.

The course will also include a field trip to Robben Island, the Slave Lodge, District Six Museum, and visits to community social entrepreneurship sites.

5 Eligibility Requirements

The course is open to students from diverse educational backgrounds, however students should have an interest in the following disciplines: History, Political Science, Sociology and Development.

NUS’ generic eligibility requirements apply, please see GRO website for details.

6 Accommodation

Students will be housed on UCT’s on-campus accommodation. Each student will have their own room, and breakfast will be provided daily.

7 Application Procedure

Apply via EduRec. Please include the completed UCT application and your resume in the supporting documents. After you have accepted your offer on EduRec, your application will be sent to UCT on 1 Mar for their processing. You can find the UCT application here:

Students must submit their applications on EduRec by 1 March 2019 in order to be considered for the programme. UCT’s application deadline is on 19 April 2019.

8 Module Mapping

You can start the module mapping process after you apply in EduRec and accept the offer for the programme. Click here for a step-by-step guide on applying for module mapping. Also note the following:

- Maximum of 2 modules (up to 10 MCs) can be mapped per summer / research programme during Special Term (May – August).
- Maximum of 1 module (up to 5 MCs) can be mapped per winter / research programme during year-end vacation (December – January).
- Total of 12 MCs from a maximum of 2 overseas summer/winter and research programmes can be mapped without having to pay NUS tuition. Additional MCs mapped will be subjected to Special Term fees. For details, visit the Registrar’s Office website.
