

Information for Students on Exchange

A. University	University of Bologna http://www.unibo.it/en
B. Country	Italy
C. Academics
i) Module Mapping & Credits Transfer	Please ensure that your Study Plan is approved by the academics at your home faculty before the exchange. Modules approved in the past might not be offered by the host university or approved by your faculty when it is time for your exchange. Please check the latest course offerings at the host universities while you are preparing your Study Plan.
ii) Academic Calendar	Semester 1: September to February Semester 2: February to July https://www.unibo.it/en/teaching/academic-calendar Each School has its own course and exam timetable. Lessons generally begin in September or shortly afterwards, and may be annual, six-monthly or divided into several sessions. The course timetables are set yearly, just before the start of the programmes. As soon as they are available, the calendars and timetables are published online. www.unibo.it/TimesandClassrooms
iii) Exchange Duration	One semester For more information about the exchange programme, please refer to https://www.unibo.it/en/international/exchange-opportunities-at-Unibo/exchange-students-guide
iv) Examination	Students are expected to attend the mandatory examination at the host university.
v) Curriculum Structure	UNIBO is a comprehensive university offering various study disciplines in the 1 st cycle (3-year bachelor level), 2 nd cycle (2-year master level), or single cycle (5-year combination of bachelor through to master level). Exchange students are allowed to pick courses from several Schools (we have 11 Schools) and from all of our five campuses (Bologna, Forlì, Cesena, Ravenna or Rimini). The courses they can choose from are the courses normally available to local students, so (apart from the Italian language

	courses, see below) there are no special courses for exchange students. UNIBO's course catalogue is one, for both Italian and international students and can be consulted online at: http://www.unibo.it/en/teaching/course-unitcatalogue. You may use the language filter on the portal to filter out English-taught courses. If the necessary information cannot be found on the internet portal, students are invited to contact the International Office of the School. Contact details can be found on the following web page at https://www.unibo.it/en/international/exchange-opportunities-at-Unibo/contacts-for-exchange-students-at-unibo Italian language courses are provided free of charge by our university. Courses are held both in the first and second semester, during September (intensive courses), October-December (extensive courses) and February-May (extensive courses). Information can be found at http://www.cla.unibo.it/corsi/italian-language-courses-for-foreigners/italian-language-courses-for-foreigners. Places are limited therefore students are suggested to take action as soon as they are briefed on this by email.
