

11.1 Overview

The guidelines indicated are to give the University's print publications a consistent and uniform "look and feel". They have been formatted to allow for diversity of designs rather than to obstruct creativity. The end product is to achieve a reading/literature system that is distinctively NUS.

All NUS stakeholders are encouraged to switch over to the Identity Publication System when renewing or calling for their next tender.

