

Halimah Yacob

2017 - Present

Madam Halimah Yacob has been a Member of Parliament since 2001 serving the Jurong Group Representation Constituency, and later in 2015 the Marsiling-Yew Tee Group Representation Constituency. She has previously served as Minister of State in the Ministry of Social and Family Development in 2011. In January 2013, she became the Speaker of the Singapore Parliament, the first woman to be elected to this post.

Mdm Halimah is known as a strong labour advocate, championing many issues on behalf of workers, when she was serving in the labour movement as the legal counsel as well as the Deputy Secretary General of the NTUC. She is also well-known in the Geneva-based International Labour Organisation (ILO), having assisted in the work of numerous committees and successfully helped to negotiate several ILO instruments.
