

Tahn-Joo Chin
Managing Partner
Cross Border Venture Partners

Tahn-Joo CHIN (Ms) is the managing partner of Cross Border Venture Partners. She was a founding partner of Venture TDF, and a partner with the WIIG-TDF Partners LLC based in the Silicon Valley in United States.

Cross Border Venture Partners (CBVP) is a mixed stage infocomm venture fund targeting to invest primarily in US with some investments in Asia, including Singapore. CBVP aims to help US portfolio companies to tap into the fast growing Asia market via Singapore, as well as make selective investments in Asia companies with potential to become global players.

Since Jan 1996, Tahn-Joo has co-managed three funds with a total of $150 million under management. She has invested globally in US, Europe (France and Germany), Israel and Singapore. Her investment focus is on technology companies in enterprise software, Internet infrastructure, telecommunication and semiconductor. Investments made by her include Redback Networks (Nasdaq:RBAK), Brokat (Neuer Markt), Cyrano (Nouveau Marche: CYRALN), and Gric Communications (Nasdaq:GRIC).

Tahn-Joo has also spent more than 15 years in information technology development and management. She was the founder and subsequently CEO of the leading Information Technology Institute (ITI), which is the R&D arm of the National Computer Board (NCB) of Singapore. Companies spun off from ITI with significant VC funding include MediaRing (MRNG.SI), Third Voice, and Private Express. She has spent few years as the CIO of the National Computer Board and was the Singapore Program Manager for the ISO 9001 IT certification program.

Tahn-Joo holds a Master degree in Computer Science Computer Engineering from Stanford University; a Diploma in Management Studies from the Graduate School of Business, University of Chicago; a Master degree in Industrial Engineering and Bachelor of Engineering (Electrical) degree with first class honors from National University of Singapore. She is currently Adjunct Professor with the National University of Singapore. Tahn-Joo founded and was director of the Singapore-Israel Industrial R&D fund (SIIRD).

Contacts: tjchin@cbvp.com (1) 650 814 -3883 or (1) 650 838 0389