

Robert Chew
Executive Partner
Accenture

Robert Chew is the Executive Partner leading the Communications and High Tech (CHT) practice in Singapore and the Wireless practice for CHT South Asia.

In his career with Accenture, Mr. Chew has worked with clients to formulate business, information and technology strategies, to redesign their organisational structures, and to implement information systems. His work covered both the telecommunications and media industries. His regional experience includes work for clients in Malaysia, Indonesia, Thailand, Taiwan and Hong Kong.

Robert is the Chairman of the IT Standards Committee (ITSC) Council and the Singapore IT Federation Wireless Chapter. He is also a member of the National Grid Steering Committee, the Singapore Standards Council, the IT Advisory Panel of the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SCCCI), the SATA Council and SATA Technology Committee.

Robert also sits on the Nanyang Technological University School of Computer Engineering Advisory Committee; and the IDA iN2015 Infocomm Infrastructure, Services and Technology Development Sub-Committee.