

PHOTO: JASON QUAH

FUN AND GAMES FOR WORKERS Construction workers who have been building the new Yale-NUS campus dancing with Yale-NUS students during a music performance at an appreciation carnival yesterday. Around 500 workers who hail from China, India and Bangladesh, attended the carnival, which featured various performances and games and where the workers got to interact with Yale-NUS students and faculty.