

LEARNING TOGETHER

People's Association (PA) Senior Academy participants and students from National University of Singapore (NUS) participating in a team-building activity yesterday, ahead of a three-day residential programme. For the first time, seniors will co-create the curriculum of the programme that will take place in May, together with student leaders from the College of Alice & Peter Tan, in accordance with their learning needs and interests. Applications for the programme will open in April.

PHOTO: WEE TECK HIAN