

Woh Hup gives $3m to charity

Home-grown construction and civil engineering group Woh Hup has donated $3 million to three charitable causes to mark its 90th anniversary.

President Tony Tan Keng Yam received a cheque for $1.5 million on behalf of the President's Challenge at the Woh Hup anniversary gala dinner on Monday.

Another $500,000 will go towards building a therapeutic garden for senior citizens in Bishan and Ang Mo Kio, while $1 million will be used to set up a Woh Hup Visiting Professorship at the National University of Singapore.
