THE Singapore Exchange (SGX) said on Wednesday that Hans Tjio, NUS law professor and co-director of the faculty's Centre for Banking and Finance Law, has been redesignated as the deputy chairman of the Listings Advisory Committee (LAC).

He takes over from Tan Cheng Han, following Prof Tan's appointment as chairman of the board of the newly established

Singapore Exchange Regulation Pte Ltd (SGXRegCo).

The SGX also announced the appointment of Goh Kian Hwee, joint group managing director and executive director of QAF Limited, to the LAC.
