Are you a student raring to join the workforce or a young employee trying to make your mark in the corporate world?

In an increasingly competitive, talent saturated marketplace, those who differentiate themselves will emerge as winners. Your alma mater will continue to go the extra mile to help you position yourself better for this challenge.

NUS Extension and Strategic Moves warmly invite you to join us for an exclusive evening with Lucas Chow, one of the most inspiring, charismatic and successful business leaders in Singapore.

Hear directly from Lucas Chow as he shares his experience and secrets to corporate success that will fuel and gear you up for the work challenges ahead.

As the Chief Executive Officer of MediaCorp Pte Ltd since December 2005, Lucas Chow is one of Singapore's most recognised names in the media and telco business with over 30 years of experience in senior management roles. He began his career with Hewlett-Packard and spent almost 20 years in the company holding several senior positions in various responsibilities. In 1998, he joined the senior management team in SingTel where he held the positions of Chief Executive Officer (SingTel Mobile), Executive Vice President (Consumer Business) and Executive Vice President (Corporate Business).
