

Up Close and Personal with

Philip Ng

CEO of Far East Organization

*Seats are limited!
Register early to avoid disappointment!*

Date: Thursday, 9 October 2008

Time: 6:30pm

Venue: NUS Extension @ #12-01 Park Mall

FREE ADMISSION

In an increasingly competitive, talent saturated marketplace, those who differentiate themselves will emerge as winners. Your alma mater will continue to go the extra mile to help you position yourself better for this challenge. For a head start, get yourself a seat in the speaker sessions we have organised for you.

NUS Extension and Strategic Moves warmly invite you to join us for an exclusive evening with Philip Ng, one of Singapore's most influential and successful businessmen.

Hear from the man who heads the largest private property developer in Singapore on his secrets to exceptional results and views on the needs of the marketplace.

Programme

- 6:30pm: Reception and Registration (Refreshments will be served)
- 7:00pm: Welcome Note by Mr. James Tay, Director of NUS Extension
- 7:05pm: Opening Speech by Mr. Viswa Sadasivan, CEO of Strategic Moves and Member of NUS Alumni Advisory Board
- 7:15pm: Up Close and Personal with Mr. Philip Ng
- 7:40pm: Q&A Session (Moderator: Mr. Viswa Sadasivan)
- 8:00pm: Networking Session
- 8:30pm: End

Mr Philip Ng is the Chief Executive Officer of Far East Organization which is a family-owned property development and investment group operating in Singapore and Malaysia. He is also the Executive Chairman of Orchard Parade Holdings Ltd (the Organization's listed hotel arm) and Chairman of Yeo Hiap Seng Ltd (the Organization's listed food and beverage vehicle) and Yeo Hiap Seng (Malaysia) Berhad. He is also a Director of Hong Kong-based Sino Group, which is Far East Organization's sister company, engaging in real estate activities in Hong Kong and China.

Register now

by simply replying to this email with your name, contact number and current year / year of commencement.

Brought to you by

NUS Extension

