

4.2.2.5 NUS Master of Laws (International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution)-Geneva Master of Laws in International Dispute Settlement (MIDS) Double Degree Programme

The NUS Master of Laws (International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution)-Geneva Master of Laws in International Dispute Settlement (MIDS) Double Degree Programme (DDP) is available to students in the NUS LL.M. (International Arbitration & Dispute Resolution) programme. Under this arrangement, students will complete the curriculum for the LL.M. (IADR) at NUS and then go to Geneva to read the LL.M. in International Dispute Settlement (MIDS) for one semester. Upon successful completion of their studies at Geneva, NUS law students will graduate with an LL.M. (IADR) from NUS and LL.M. in International Dispute Settlement (MIDS) from Geneva.
