NUS FINANCIAL AID FOR FULL-TIME UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

All NUS undergraduate students can apply for NUS financial aid and external financial aid schemes to finance their tuition fees and living expenses.

Any Singaporean student with a per capita monthly household income (PCI)* of $1,900 or less can receive a bursary.

For example, Singaporean student from a family of 4, with a total monthly household income of $7,600 or less can receive a bursary.

The neediest Singaporean students can obtain 100% coverage of their study expenses through NUS and external loans and bursaries.

Bursaries do not need to be repaid unlike loans.

* PCI: Total gross monthly income divided by total number of family members
