

ASEAN YOUNG LEADERS TRAINING PROGRAMME
6 JULY TO 6 SEPTEMBER 2008
GUANGXI, CHINA

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

---

Overview

The ASEAN Young Leaders Training Programme (AYLTP) was established in March 2002 by the All-China Youth Federation (ACYF) with support from the China Guangxi International Youth Exchange Institute.

It aims to promote friendship and mutual trust between the younger generation of China and ASEAN member countries through such in-depth study trips and training programmes. The AYLTP covers varied topics such as Chinese politics, economy, culture, science and technology and education.

The 2-month programme held from 6 July to 6 September 2008 will include institutional visits, plenary lecture sessions, culture immersion programme and sessions to facilitate exchange of views.

The official teaching language is English.

Curriculum and Activities

The programme will include course and activities on:

- a) Chinese language (conversational);
- b) Chinese Culture (history, art, nationalities, customs, tourism, music, martial arts);
- c) Special lectures on survey of China, China's customs and traditions, China's foreign policy, China's reform and opening-up policy, prospects of China-ASEAN Free Trade Area, China's Rural Areas, China's youth organizations and youth work, well known enterprises and agricultural and industrial products in Guangxi, development of internet in China, community development, and etc;
- d) Institutional visits to enterprises, government institutions, schools, communities and rural areas in Guangxi and Beijing; and

- e) Informal dialogues on topics such as exchange and cooperation of human resources, young entrepreneurs and employment, youths' views towards marriage and relationships.

A more detailed programme will be circulated to the delegates during the pre-departure briefings.

Expectation from Participants

Participants are required to prepare

- a) Presentations and materials to introduce their country (Singapore), nationalities, customs, youth organizations and activities, economic development, tourism and etc; and
- b) Cultural performances.

They are also required to submit a post-programme report to NYC and share their experiences and learning points at appropriate platforms.

Participants

There will be a total of 10 participants selected from Singapore to attend the ASEAN Young Leaders Training Programme.

The Singapore Delegation Youth Leader and Assistant Youth Leader will be appointed during the pre-departure briefing.

Expenses

Economy return airfare, local hospitality (accommodation on sharing basis and domestic transport), tuition fees and insurance will be covered by the hosting organisation. In addition, each participant will receive RMB600 (SGD$120) per month for meal subsidies.

NYC will assist the participant in applying for the China VISA.

The participant will be required to pay for their own personal expenses (including meals) in China.

Contact

For more details on the programme, please contact:

Ms Wendy Pang
National Youth Council
International Affairs Section
Blk 490 Lorong 6 Toa Payoh
HDB Hub Biz Three #06-10
Singapore 310490
Tel: +65 6839 9131
Fax: +65 6737 2025

*****