Part-time /Internships

We invite the following students to join OSHE on a part-time basis to support us on running our various safety and health programmes or participate in our projects:

- Full time NUS Masters of Science students in Safety, Health and Environmental Technology
- Full time students pursuing postgraduate degrees in engineering, physical sciences, public health with an interest in contributing to safety and health standards on campus

Types of programmes or projects:

- Safety and health culture
- Total workplace safety and health
- Fire safety
- Chemical safety
- Radiation safety
- Construction safety
- Safety and health promotional schemes
- Industrial hygiene

Terms and conditions:

- Students would need to comply with RO policies regarding no. of hours for part-time work.
- Students would need to obtain approval from their supervisor or department (where applicable).
- Students would be assigned an OSHE supervisor and would need to follow NUS related policies for employees.

Application Procedure:

- Please submit your CV/Resume to Ms Leong Siew Lin at uciils@nus.edu.sg / office no: 66012411
- Only shortlisted applicants would be notified if they are successful for interview.