

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF SINGAPORE

REGULATION 7

DEGREE AND DIPLOMA REQUIREMENTS

Admission

1. A candidate may be admitted to a programme of study leading to the award of a degree, diploma or certificate only if he satisfies the conditions and criteria specified by the relevant Faculty or Academic Unit, as approved by the Senate.
2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, the University may, in its absolute discretion, withdraw an offer of admission made to a candidate, or expel a candidate who has accepted an offer of admission from the University but has yet to register to study at the University, where the candidate has:
 - (a) at any time, been convicted of an offence in a court of law; or
 - (b) in the opinion of the University, made a false statement or has withheld material information in connection with his application.

Assessment and Examination

3. Student performance in undergraduate, graduate coursework degree, graduate diploma, artist diploma, and certificate programmes may be assessed through a combination of examinations and continuous assessment. All assessment shall be governed by the Boards of Examiners appointed by the Senate.
4. Student performance in graduate research degree programmes may be assessed through a combination of examinations, continuous assessment, a written thesis, and an oral examination on their thesis and related subject matter.
5. A student may continue in a degree, diploma or certificate programme only if he satisfies the requirements specified by the relevant Faculty or Academic Unit, as approved by the Senate.
6. A student may be barred from enrolling for modules, be barred from an examination, have his grade for a module withheld or have his candidature suspended or terminated if:
 - (a) he has failed to satisfy specific requirements (including administrative requirements) of the relevant Faculty or Academic Unit for admission to the examination or completion of the module;
 - (b) he is in debt to the University (other than through an explicit loan made by the University); or
 - (c) he is so sanctioned arising from disciplinary proceedings as prescribed by established Statutes, Regulations, policies and procedures.

7. A student who has not been admitted to an examination or whose grade for a module has been withheld pursuant to paragraph 6 above shall be deemed to have failed the examination or module.
8. The Senate may, in its absolute discretion, withhold the result of a student in the whole or any part of an examination or module pending the outcome of disciplinary proceedings as prescribed by established Regulations, policies and procedures.
9. The degrees of Doctor of Laws, Doctor of Letters, and Doctor of Science may be conferred on an honorary basis in accordance with established Regulations, policies and procedures.
