The Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (FASS) is one of the largest Faculties at NUS, with an annual intake of about 1,900. More than 6000 undergraduate students (including 500 exchange students), and close to 1000 graduate students make up the student population. The Faculty also has more than 400 faculty members and 160 executive and professional staff. It is one of the earliest established Faculties at the University, with its origins dating back to the founding of Raffles College, which began classes in 1928.

The Faculty’s mission is to contribute to society through the advancement of knowledge and learning in the humanities and social sciences. The FASS mission consists of three parts. It emphasises the following:

- Advancement of knowledge through research;
- Advancement of learning through education;
- Service to society

The Faculty is organised into three divisions – Asian Studies, Humanities and Social Sciences – under which 15 departments and programmes are grouped. It offers the most comprehensive range of Humanities and Social Sciences subjects not only in Singapore but in the region.

3 Undergraduate Education

The Faculty subscribes to two principles with respect to undergraduate education:

1) Depth and breadth

Good undergraduate education involves a balanced combination of depth and breadth. By the end of a degree programme, graduates should know one area well, that is, be aware of its main ideas, of the possibilities and limitations of its methodology, and of its current questions and problems. The best graduates will also be able to devise problems and pose questions of their own in this area. Properly educated graduates should also have broad exposure to other kinds of knowledge beyond their specialisation.

2) Responsibility

As mature learners, undergraduates should be given the responsibility of determining much of their own programme of study: for instance, the area of specialisation, and the scope and nature of their study outside that area. In short, there should be both flexibility and choice.

3.1 Degrees Offered

The Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences offers programmes on a full-time basis, leading to the degree of:

- Bachelor of Arts [B.A.]
- Bachelor of Arts with Honours [B.A. (Hons.)]
- Bachelor of Social Sciences with Honours [B.Soc.Sci. (Hons.)]

3.2 Degree Requirements

3.2.1 Curriculum Structure and Graduation Requirements

The graduation requirements presented in this section are extracted from the Modular System for Cohort 2014, which contains other important information for FASS students. Students are strongly advised to print a copy of the Modular System for Cohort 2014 for their reference, available at:

http://www.fas.nus.edu.sg/undergrad/toknow/modular_system.html

All important announcements will be placed at the FASS website: http://www.fas.nus.edu.sg. It is, therefore, the responsibility of students to check the Faculty website and their NUS mailboxes regularly for updates. Students are also responsible for ensuring that they are contactable via their NUS mailboxes.

To graduate with a B.A. (Hons.) or B.Soc.Sci. (Hons.) degree, FASS students must have declared honours track* and accumulated a minimum of 160 Modular Credits (MCs) and achieved a Cumulative Average Point (CAP) of at least 3.2. Students who choose not to or do not complete the honours requirements may graduate with a B.A. degree, after accumulating a minimum of 120 MCs at a CAP of at least 2.00.

The requirements for graduation are:

1. University Level Requirements which include:
   - General Education modules (GEM)
   - Singapore Studies module (SS)
   - Breadth modules (electives outside student's Faculty)

2. Programme Requirements which include:
   - Faculty Requirements
Major Requirements

3. Unrestricted Elective Modules (outside student’s major)

Details of the relative weightage and MCs required for graduation are presented in the following sections. University Scholars Programme (USP) students should refer to Section 3.2.1.3.

* Note: To declare an honours track, students must have completed at least 110 MCs including 60 MCs of major requirements AND have a minimum CAP of 3.50.

English for Academic Purposes (EAP)

All candidates offered admission to the Faculty must be exempted from or be required to take the Qualifying English Test (QET). Students who pass the QET will be exempted from taking the EAP course. Students who do not pass the QET will be required to take the EAP course which consists of two consecutive modules, ES1000 Basic English course and ES1102 English for Academic Purposes. These two modules are additional essential modules for students who do not pass the QET. Students with poorer English proficiency will read ES1000 first. On passing ES1000, they will proceed to read ES1102. Students with better English proficiency will proceed directly to read ES1102. A pass in ES1102 is essential for graduation.

A full description of the modules is available at the CELC website: http://www.nus.edu.sg/celc

3.2.1.1 B.A. (Hons.) or B.Soc.Sci. (Hons.) degree

To graduate with a B.A. (Hons.) or B.Soc.Sci. (Hons.) degree, FASS students must have:

1. Fulfilled the requirements specified in Table 1 and obtained the minimum MCs required for the relevant degree.
2. Obtained a minimum CAP of 3.2 for the award of an honours degree. (Refer to Table 2)
3. Completed the B.A. (Hons.)/B.Soc.Sci. (Hons.) degree within a maximum of ten semesters, unless otherwise approved by the University.

* Students must earn the stipulated minimum number of MCs from level-3000 and level-4000 modules of their major. The Faculty requires students to earn a minimum of 20 MCs from level-3000 modules and a minimum of 40 MCs from level-4000 modules or higher in their major. However, for both levels, some majors may stipulate a higher number for their minimum. Students may be allowed, in lieu of their level-4000 modules, a maximum of two level-5000 modules (subject to the department’s approval and module pre-requisites, if any,) to fulfil graduation requirements. Students should take note that level-5000 FASS modules offered to undergraduates will be worth 5MC each. The level-5000 module codes for undergraduates will have the suffix ‘R’ (for example: EC5555R). Some departments as a matter of policy do not allow undergraduates to read their graduate modules. No level-5000 Independent Studies Modules (ISMs) or level-6000 modules (including ISMs) will be open to undergraduates. Please refer to the requirements specified by the Department/Programme for each subject.

2. Obtained a minimum CAP of 2.00, which is equivalent to an overall ‘C’ grade.

* While it is stated that USP requirements are 48 MCs, depending on exceptions granted and whether students read USP ISMs in the major, students might read less than 48 MC for USP requirements, in which case they need to make up the MCs under Unrestricted Electives (outside the major).

 The Faculty Requirement for exposure modules will be reduced accordingly if the USP student enrolled in the FASS has successfully completed USP First Tier modules that are regarded as equivalents. The MCs thus freed up can then be used for the Unrestricted Electives (outside the major).

 Students must earn the stipulated minimum number of MCs from level-3000 and level-4000 modules of their major. It provides students with comprehensive training in both classical and modern Chinese Studies. Topics covered include Chinese religions and thought in ancient China, business Chinese, classical and modern literature, film and cultural studies. Through these areas, the Department trains students to develop independent and critical thinking. Although Mandarin is the medium of instruction, some modules are taught in English. C. Communications and New Media

In the 1990s, any student wishing to become a communications and new media professional studied journalism, public relations or advertising at a school or department of journalism and communications. During that time, the study of the Internet and interactive media design were the domain of computer scientists. The development and fast adoption of digital media brought us “convergence,” or the blending of communication networks, computing and digital content into a common platform. This has resulted in changes in the way content is created, packaged and disseminated for public consumption.

Today’s media companies are seeking communication and media professionals who can not only perform the duties of a journalist or a public relations or advertising practitioner, but who are also comfortable with visual design and content production for digital media—e.g., online publications, blogs, podcasts, virtual communities, interactive advertising.

CNM educates future media professionals using an integrated and multidisciplinary approach that reflects today’s converged media environment. Students majoring in CNM can take courses in journalism and public relations (traditionally offered in communication programmes), visual design (traditionally offered in arts programmes), game design and human computer interaction (traditionally offered in computer sciences) within one academic department. Students can also take courses in new media regulation and policy, social psychology, and the culture industries as well as sociology, political science, history, philosophy, computer sciences and business.

In this regard, Communications and New Media (CNM) at the National University of Singapore is the only department in Southeast Asia which offers media studies, interactive media design and communication management with a focus on new media. Our multidisciplinary approach offers students opportunities in experiential learning through international and local competitions, exhibitions, service-based projects collaborating with external clients, internships, student exchanges and interactions with industry practitioners. With faculty members hailing from top communications schools from around the world, bringing with them innovative methods of teaching, students benefit from an understanding of trends coupled with an eye on the evolving industry.

With this multifaceted understanding of new media and communications, CNM graduates will be able to work in a wide spectrum of private corporations, public agencies, non-profit organisations and media-related industries in policy formulation, public relations, corporate communication, media relations, media design, games design, journalism, research and information management positions, among others.

Entry Requirements

There are no formal pre-requisites or qualifying tests for entry into the department. The programme welcomes students with a keen interest in the subject and who love (or hate) interacting with new media (games, wireless devices, etc) and want to test their emotions and attitudes to technology through academic rigor and interdisciplinary learning. Students interested in learning effective ways to communicate and who want to be visually creative are also welcome.

F. English Literature

In your foundation module, you will be trained in basic literary and cultural reading, and in the craft of academic writing. All Level-2000 modules will equip students with interpretive tools that they can use for further analysis of literary texts and other forms of cultural expression. Each module in this Level-2000 category will approach a group of literary or cultural texts by relating them to one or more significant formal, historical, or theoretical frameworks, in order to show students how the approach that one employs affects the process of textual interpretation. Subsequent modules offer a wide range of options.

Majoring students are expected to read a certain number of modules from the “British Literature” group, as these provide knowledge of the development and connectedness of English literary history. In addition, there are modules as diverse as film, writing, Southeast Asian literature, American literature and literature in relation to the other arts; and there are honours modules which deal with specialised topics at a more advanced level – examples include Modern Critical Theory; Research Methodology; Film; and focused Literary Topics. What brings these diverse areas together is the emphasis on the training of skills in the reading and analysis of literary and cultural texts in all their diversity and complexity. There will also be opportunities to undertake advanced research projects in special topics as part of continuous assessment. The flexibility of the Literature programme within the modular system allows you considerable breadth in the types of courses chosen, while still retaining the rigour of the traditional English Literature degree.

Apart from sensitivity to language and the sophisticated communicative skills developed through prolonged engagement with literary texts and criticism, the programme also imparts the critical ability and theories necessary to engage with a range of cultural texts such as film, various types of written discourse, advertising and media. A literature student is thus well equipped for a number of jobs – typical career areas of recent graduates include journalism, television, public relations in banks and other corporations, teaching and publishing.

G. European Studies

The aim of the European Studies Programme is to enhance the student’s understanding of Europe by offering two types of modules.

First, there are multidisciplinary non-language modules covering an array of disciplines such as modules which focus on European Economics and Business, Geography, History, Literature, Philosophy and Politics. Second, there are language modules in either French or German that students are required to read and pass.
Career prospects for NUS graduates in European Studies are generally bright as there are currently several thousand European companies operating in Singapore and Europe is among Singapore’s largest trading partners. Besides this, both various public sector bodies (such as the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Ministry for Information and the Arts, IE Singapore and the Singapore Tourism Board) and companies in the private sector provide good career opportunities for our graduates. The graduate’s knowledge of Europe and proficiency in either French or German are assets much appreciated by these institutions and companies.

Many of the Programme’s graduates have also proceeded to Europe to pursue postgraduate qualifications, and their knowledge of French and German has allowed them to gain entry into European universities outside the United Kingdom.

Entry Requirements

Students wishing to read European Studies as a major should have a good grade in the General Paper and good GCE ‘A’ Level results. There are no prerequisite or qualifying tests. The Programme welcomes students who show a keen interest in the subject.

Previous knowledge of either French or German is not required as these two languages will be taught as part of the curriculum. For students with prior knowledge of French or German, placement tests will be conducted to enable them to pursue language modules* appropriate for their level.

* All language modules are offered by the Centre for Language Studies. Placement tests will also be conducted by the Centre.

Subject Requirements

Single Major [B.A. (Hons.)]

H. Geography

At the Department of Geography, students are encouraged to develop a deeper and more critical understanding of both physical and human environments. Students will acquire knowledge, skills and perspectives which will enable them to better evaluate and appreciate the interdependent world we live in. The Department offers four strands of geographical enquiry: (i) physical features and processes of the earth’s surface; (ii) the interaction between societies and space; (iii) human-environment relationships; and (iv) regional specialisations. Emphasis will be given to understanding the local situation as well as regional and global influences. Students will also be exposed to various research techniques through seminars, laboratory sessions, hands-on workshops in geographic information systems (GIS) and remote sensing, and fieldwork.

Geography is one of the most diverse fields of academic study offering a wide breadth of careers for our graduates. As geography trains us to think critically and to write analytically, these valuable assets prepare our graduates well for a wide range of jobs in government bodies, statutory boards and private organisations.

Entry Requirements
There are no formal prerequisites for entry into the Department. While we accept Arts students without GCE ‘A’ Level Geography as well as students from the Science stream, the Department seeks to attract students who show a high degree of interest in Geography. This interest may be indicated in their selection of Geography modules in the first year. There are also no qualifying tests for entry into the Department. The Department, however, expects its students to have a good command of the English Language.

I. Global Studies

Globalisation calls for a way of understanding contemporary issues that goes beyond the boundaries of any single discipline. Global Studies is a new, multidisciplinary field of inquiry that examines the processes and effects of globalisation across political, economic, social, and cultural domains around the world. The field builds on social science concepts and area studies expertise and focuses especially on problems of profound public policy significance.

The Global Studies Programme is housed in the Department of Political Science but draws on the broader strengths of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. It provides students with the background required to understand and address the challenging policy issues confronting the world today. Students learn how the local communities and environments in which peoples live their lives are affected by national, regional, international, and transnational cultural flows, environmental processes, political ideologies, and economic relationships. Coupling broad, multidisciplinary education with a focus on policy and governance, the Programme is designed to cultivate the combination of expertise and creative, critical thinking skills that are necessary for the next generation of global leaders and citizens.

J. History

History is a wide-ranging and challenging subject to study. It seeks to understand the past to make sense of the present, thus adding an important dimension to the understanding of human society. The study of history equips students with a wide range of practical analytical skills and knowledge that are essential for successful life-long careers. As a student, you will learn how to analyse many kinds of complex evidence from diverse sources, to develop critical powers and learn to write with clarity and coherence. The emphasis of our teaching is on regular discussion sessions during which students discuss historical issues with their tutors. In addition, each module will assign a number of written assignments, mostly in the form of essays or projects, to help students develop skills of analysis and expression. Lectures play a vital role by providing a framework for tutorials and essays. A degree in history will provide you with the knowledge, skills and disciplines that are highly valued by employers. In the public sector, there is an increasing demand for well-trained history graduates. Our graduates have also established successful careers in the corporate world, many in press and media relations as well as advertising and banking.

K. Japanese Studies

Founded in 1981, the Department of Japanese Studies is one of the largest area studies departments devoted to the study of Japan in the Asia-Pacific region. We offer B.A., M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in Japanese Studies taught by specialists with qualifications from leading universities around the world. Every year, more than 1500 undergraduate students enrol in our courses covering a broad range of disciplines including Japanese linguistics, business studies, sociology, anthropology, history, literature, religion, politics and international relations. All of our faculty members have extensive experience in Japan and are active in publishing and research.

The Department believes in the importance of maintaining close and supportive relationships with our students. Through our mentorship programme, each major student is paired with a faculty member who monitors the individual student’s academic progress over the course of his/her time at NUS. Other than that, our students are also given many opportunities to actively interact with the Japanese communities in Singapore and Japan through such programmes as visiting Japanese families and companies, home stays and company internships, and language and cultural immersion activities. Scholarships for students to pursue further training and study in Japanese universities are also available. Graduates of the Department are well prepared for work in the private and public sectors, as well as in local and overseas companies and institutions which require graduates with good knowledge of Japanese language and society, and its operating values and ethos.

M. Philosophy

Our department is designed to allow students to learn about the philosophical traditions of Asia and the West. The study of Asian philosophies is essential to an understanding of Asian cultures and traditions, and as such is indispensable to anyone who is interested in Asian society, politics, history, literature or doing business in Asian countries. In the Singapore context, the study of Asian philosophies not only provides an opportunity for students to explore their own cultural roots, but also contributes significantly to understanding the complexity and cultural diversity of the modern world. Western Philosophy also develops those analytical and critical skills which will be invaluable in any discipline, profession or in the daily business of life. The Department offers a variety of modules in Asian and Western philosophy, including topics such as Chinese Philosophy, Indian Philosophy, Moral Philosophy, Logic, Political Philosophy, and Art & Philosophy, etc. leading to the degrees of B.A. and B.A. (Hons.). Graduate programmes by research are also available. The critical and analytical skills students develop through their acquaintance with philosophy, as well as their awareness of Asian cultural traditions as a result of their acquaintance with one, or more, Asian philosophical traditions, allow them to do well in many career areas.

Philosophy graduates have been recruited by very diverse organisations – the Straits Times, IBM, Mediacorp Singapore, multinationals (e.g., Shell, Neptune Orient Lines), Singapore International Airlines and various Government Ministries and Statutory Boards. Large organisations and employers value the evidence of independent thought, capacity for research, and flexible, integrative and critical thinking that an education in philosophy provides.

N.  Political Science

Politics is an intensely human activity and the study of it is an exhilarating experience. Political Science covers a wide spectrum of concerns: political thought, political institutions, the policy-making process and politics between states. It ranges across normative, empirical, and policy concerns and does so from a cosmopolitan rather than a parochial perspective. The study of political science prepares the students to appreciate the political world and to explore how the study of politics is informed by knowledge from different disciplines. Students of political science are not left with a cache of facts but are trained to reflect, analyse and interpret. The lectures and, more importantly, the discussion sessions and the assignments in class are geared towards creating a confident, articulate, attentive and active person. Equipped with these qualities, a political science graduate will be able to seek employment in the civil service, print and broadcast media, teaching, research, and many other fields.

Entry Requirements

A candidate who proposes to read Political Science should have a good pass in General Paper of the GCE ‘A’ Level Examination and other related subjects.

R. South Asian Studies

The South Asian Studies Programme (SASP) is an innovative programme which is designed to increase students’ understanding of the South Asian region from different disciplinary points of view. The region comprises seven nation-states – India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Bhutan and the Maldives and, wherever possible, modules deal with the region as a whole. In this multidisciplinary programme, there is an emphasis on contemporary and recent historical studies, the aim of which is to give a basis for appreciation of the developments which have taken place in these nations since the end of the colonial period in the mid-20th century, and the opportunities they have for change in the future. The multidisciplinary base of the programme links economics and development studies, historical and political studies, social and cultural studies, and philosophical, literary and linguistic studies. Considerations of gender also inform these disciplines. Students are encouraged to develop connections among these areas in the light of their interests and goals. SASP offers students with GCE ‘A’ Level or GCE ‘AO’ Level passes in Tamil the possibility to pursue studies of Tamil language and culture at an academic level. The SASP is also concerned with the understanding of the South Asian Diaspora in Southeast Asia and world-wide, as well as the historical and contemporary linkages that exist between the nations of Southeast Asia and the South Asian region. SASP is designed to be supportive of graduates who want to be administrators, educationists, analysts, policy-makers, consultants or representatives of Singaporean and international corporations and agencies with interests and operations in the South Asian states.

T. Theatre Studies

The Theatre Studies Programme trains students in the critical understanding and practice of theatre, in the context of the conjunctions of Western and Asian theatres in Singapore. After foundational training in the core histories, forms, methods and issues that have shaped contemporary theatre practices, the curriculum develops the scope of theatre studies by addressing performance in other mediums – such as film – and cultural practices that can be studied as performances, such as social rituals and popular television. In your foundational module, you will be introduced to the theoretical underpinnings of theatre, including its history, dramaturgy and contemporary theories of performance. This is complemented by practical work in voice, acting and collaborative presentations. Subsequently, students select modules from three main strands: Timeframes, Cultural Practices, and Perspectives on Performance. The modules offered in these strands include Introduction to Asian Theatre, Major Playwrights, Voice Studies and Production, As If: Actors and Acting, Performance and Popular Culture, and Cultural Performance in Asia. The programme emphasises the integration of theory and practice throughout its curriculum and features a Professional Theatre Internship module which offers on-the-job attachment for students who wish to undertake professional immersion. Graduates in Theatre Studies are well-trained for a variety of arts and media careers, from creative practice and arts management, to event planning and journalism. The transferable skills developed in critical thinking, clear communication and creative problem-solving also mean that graduates are also well-placed to enter a wide range of professions extending from teaching and research to entrepreneurship, marketing, and the diplomatic service.

Entry Requirements

Students who wish to read Theatre Studies should have obtained at least one of the following: Exempted from or passed the NUS Qualifying English Test, or exempted from further CELC Remedial English modules.

3.3 Multidisciplinary Opportunities

3.3.1 Minor Programmes

Students may plan their degree so that it includes a designated minor. A multidisciplinary minor is a programme of study consisting of 24 MCs which may be offered solely by a department, across several departments or several faculties. A student may use, partially or wholly, the MCs under the Unrestricted Electives (outside the major) requirement to satisfy the minor requirements. Minors are offered by FASS as well as other faculties.

Currently, in addition to the subject minors, the multi-disciplinary minors offered by FASS are: Aquatic Ecology, China Studies, Cultural Studies, English Studies, Film Studies, Gender Studies, Geographical Information Systems, Geosciences, Health and Social Sciences, Interactive Media Development, Petroleum Exploration, Religious Studies, Science, Technology and Society and Urban Studies.
3.3.1.1 Aquatic Ecology

Minor in Aquatic Ecology aims to expose students to the important disciplines of marine and freshwater ecological studies while developing relevant specific skills, knowledge, and experience among them. With the increasing governmental, private, and societal interest in aquatic sciences, there is a growing demand for manpower with expertise in freshwater and/or marine ecology. This Minor complements aptly the primary disciplines of students from the Life Sciences Major and Geography Major. It will also enhance the training for students keen on related career opportunities at relevant governmental and private institutions in Singapore, including Public Utilities Board (PUB), National Environment Agency (NEA), National Parks Board (NParks), The Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (MPA), Tropical Marine Science Institute (TMSI), DHI Group, and Singapore-Delft Water Alliance (SDWA).

Programme Requirements

Pass at least 24 MCs of modules which include the following:
A minimum of 16 MCs from the core modules.
A minimum of 8 MCs from the electives.

Note 1:
This Minor is open to undergraduate students from all disciplines. Application is required and successful entry to Aquatic Ecology Minor is subjected to Department of Biological Science approval.

3.3.1.2 China Studies
As the most populous nation and one of the oldest civilisations in the world, China has become increasingly important in international politics and the global economy. China is not only a dynamic market but also a strategic partner to Singapore. Today, China is Singapore’s fifth largest trading partner, while Singapore constitutes the sixth largest foreign investor in the People’s Republic of China. The realisation of a China-ASEAN Free Trade Agreement by 2010 will potentially create a market area of 1.7 billion consumers and involve two-way annual trade worth US$1.2 trillion dollars. China, in short, offers enormous potential for Singapore and great prospects for new graduates. The demand for graduates with knowledge of China will increase significantly as the country and its economy continue to grow.

To engage China, one must understand its history and culture. Often, serious misunderstandings arise due to ignorance of the cultural sensitivities of the Chinese. In addition to history and culture, those intending to work or conduct business in China must understand the ways in which Chinese society, politics, and economy operate.

The study of China, therefore, requires a multidisciplinary approach. The Minor in China Studies offers just that. It aims at providing students with a basic understanding of Chinese culture, history, society, politics, and economy which can complement their major courses of study and prepare them for a career in or relating to China.

Programme Requirements

All modules read in fulfilment of the minor requirements should be graded. Modules taken on Satisfactory/ Unsatisfactory basis cannot be counted towards the minor requirements. For students on overseas exchange, credit transfer of up to 8 MCs of relevant modules for the minor may be accepted. For more information, please refer to: http://www.fas.nus.edu.sg/intl/undergrad_students.html

The curricular requirements of the Minor in China Studies are as follows:

Pass at least 24 MCs of modules, which include the following:

1. a minimum of 8 MCs from History and Culture group
2. a minimum of 8 MCs from Society and Economy group
3. a minimum of 4 MCs at Level-3000
4. One module (4 MCs) for the remaining two module required may be a Chinese language module offered by the Centre for Language Studies (CLS)

Note 1:
A maximum of 8 MCs from the minor can be used to satisfy the requirements of a major or another minor.

This Minor is not a specialist programme. The two groups of modules are designed to provide students with basic knowledge of China and the necessary tools to further their understanding and research. The Programme allows one CLS Chinese language module to be read in the Minor. While the Minor in China Studies is not a language programme, students are encouraged to study the Chinese language and to apply for “Study in China” under the University’s Student Exchange Programme (SEP).

Students should note the prerequisites and/or preclusions for particular modules in the Minor. New modules taught by faculty members from FASS and other faculties/schools will be added as the Minor in China Studies develops in subsequent years.

3.3.1.3 Cultural Studies

The import of “culture” for understanding human activity and the history of its many uses provide the initial basis of Cultural Studies, an interdisciplinary field formed over forty years ago, primarily in the US and UK. Since then, interest in... the field has grown exponentially. Incorporating a diverse range of new theoretical inputs, methodological innovations and objects of inquiry, Cultural Studies takes up a number of issues related to contemporary culture while being aware of their specific historical formations. The research field broadly includes: analysis of contemporary urban cultural practices, including the consumption and politics of mass media, popular literature, consumerism, lifestyles and urban architecture and spaces, the construction of individual and collective identities and formation of subjectivities and, the politics and interests in knowledge production and reproduction. Students who take up this minor will leave it with knowledge of contemporary debates in cultural studies and with a theoretical tool-kit capable of analysing a range of social processes and cultural forms and practices including media, urbanism, critical theory, cinema, cyberspace, popular fiction, popular music and television. Although central to daily life in contemporary, high-technology-based societies, many of these contemporary cultural phenomena have been placed outside the boundaries of established disciplines such as sociology, history and literary studies, in part because the concepts developed within singular disciplines are unable to capture their complexities.

Through multidisciplinary methodologies, the Minor in Cultural Studies combines and adapts qualitative research strategies to specific analytic interests, including textual analysis, ethnographic observations and different theories of interpretation, including semiotics, psychoanalysis, post-structuralism and postmodernism.

The general aims of the Minor are:
1. To provide coherence to possible combinations of the different modules offered by different departments elected by undergraduates.
2. To provide conceptual and methodological tools for students to gain depth of understanding and skills in analysis of contemporary cultural practices.
3. To provide students with analytic and conceptual skills which are increasingly demanded in a service-oriented and information-based economy.

Programme Requirements

Pass at least 24 MCs from the basket of Minor in Cultural Studies modules, which include the following:
1. One core module – SC3224 Theory and Practice of Cultural Studies
2. Five elective modules
   a. A minimum of 8 MCs at Level-2000
   b. A minimum of 8 MCs at Level-3000 (including SC3224 Theory and Practice of Cultural Studies)

Students are limited to taking a maximum of three modules from the same department (outside student’s major).

Note 1:
A maximum of 8 MCs from the minor can be used to satisfy the requirements of a major or another minor.

Note 2:
Students who have read XD3101 Theory and Practice of Cultural Studies prior to AY2010-11 can use it to fulfil the essential requirement of the minor.

3.3.1.4 English Studies

In the last fifty years English has become the major world language. Spoken with different levels of competence by nearly 800 million people, it is the pre-eminent means of communication in international business, diplomacy, and academia, the medium of numerous vibrant national literatures, the language of many important films, as well as an almost ubiquitous presence in electronic communications of various kinds. The high level of English in Singapore has long been one of the country’s social, cultural, economic and intellectual assets. For these reasons, the Minor in English Studies is likely to be attractive to students from a number of diverse disciplines throughout the university.

The Minor in English Studies offers students a chance to develop a deeper level of knowledge and thinking abilities in the study of Literature and Language. It introduces students to some of the central questions of the two disciplines, and some of the methodologies they have developed for investigating those questions. In particular, students are encouraged to acquire a critical understanding of literary and linguistic analyses, and the capacity to engage meaningfully in analysis, interpretation, and explanation. There is also some room in the Minor for students to choose modules and develop interests of their own. The student who follows the Minor will have an increased understanding of the nature of the English language, and of literature in English, as well as tools for further independent investigation of literary and linguistic phenomena.

The Minor in English Studies is open to all students in NUS, but students majoring in English Language and/or English Literature are not eligible for the Minor in English Studies.

Programme Requirements

Pass at least 24 MCs of EL and EN modules, which must include the following:

1. EL1101E/GEK1011 The Nature of Language
2. EL2201 Structure of Sentences and Meanings
3. EN1101E/GEK1000 An Introduction to Literary Studies
4. A minimum of ONE level-2000 EN module from the following:
   - EN2201 Backgrounds to Western Literature and Culture
   - EN2202 Critical Reading
   - EN2203 Introduction to Film Studies
   - EN2204 Reading the Horror Film
5. At least 8 MCs of EL and/or EN modules at level-3000.

Note 1:
Minor in English Studies is NOT offered to EL-major and EN-major students.

Note 2:
A maximum of 8 MCs from the minor can be used to satisfy the requirements of a major or another minor.

Note 3:
EN2201, EN2202, EN2203 and EN2204 are pre-requisite or co-requisite for level-3000 EN modules; all other level-2000 modules can be taken as electives so long as graduation requirements are met.

For reasons of staff availability and student enrolment, not all Level-2000 and Level-3000 elective modules will necessarily be offered every academic year. Students are to check the Department website/notice board for the modules offered, and the relevant prerequisites and preclusion(s).

3.3.1.5 Film Studies

As we enter the second decade of the 21st Century, cinema remains a significant medium of mass communication, entertainment, and information-dissemination in our modern, globalized, intensely media-oriented environment. As a cultural form, film continues to reflect, interrogate and help shape the ideas, beliefs and perspectives of audiences worldwide. As a business and industry, filmmaking encompasses the small number of multi-billion dollar, international, multi-media enterprises alongside the contributions made by smaller, independent cultural producers. It remains a powerful form of creative expression and functions as a social and political force for both stability and change.
Our students inhabit a world in which they are inundated by images and by the multiple, sophisticated and complex appeals made by a growing range of increasingly interrelated image-based media. Considering the on-going importance and impact of films and other related forms of popular visual media in contemporary culture, a Minor in Film Studies programme will help prepare students for the challenges associated with negotiating life in this contemporary context. Familiarity with film’s history, its aesthetic elements, and its industrial contexts will allow students to develop the fundamental and vital skills to address, critically assess and engage with cinema in its myriad contexts.

The Minor in Film Studies aims to give students a rich understanding of the medium of film. Drawing from the wide range of module offerings on films from the various departments in FASS, students in the programme will benefit from the broad exposure to different disciplines and approaches to examining the cinematic medium.

The programme will introduce students to a range of perspectives on the study of film, hone critical and analytical skills, and enhance a thoughtful and engaged appreciation of film culture in its historical, industrial, political and socio-cultural contexts. The inter-disciplinary nature of the minor offers students the opportunity to interrogate moving images from the varied vantage points of different disciplines, examining film as art, culture, and business, and as text, discourse and product.

More specifically, the Minor in Film Studies encourages and trains students to critically read cinematic representation and analyse film from an informed position. Students will

1. gain insight into the history of film and its key aesthetic practices;
2. interrogate the social meanings, functions and uses of film;
3. develop their media literacy through film analysis skills; and
4. cultivate an informed, critical approach towards the role of images in our society.

Programme Requirements

Pass at least 24 MCs of recognised modules, which must include the following:

1. EN2203 Introduction to Film Studies
2. two modules must be drawn from the list of recognised modules in Band A
3. the remaining three modules must be drawn from the list of recognised modules in Band B.

List of Recognised Modules

Recognised film modules are listed under two bands: Band A and Band B. Band A modules adopt a medium specific focus and offer students a more detailed examination of the key ways in which the cinematic medium has evolved historically, aesthetically, and socio-culturally. These modules provide additional foundation in the key aspects and features of the cinematic medium itself. Band B modules offer the valuable interdisciplinary perspectives that are vital to a varied and sophisticated understanding of the myriad ways in which film functions within our contemporary globalized context.

Band A Modules

- EN2204 Reading the Horror Film
- EN2274 Introduction to Screenwriting
- EN3242 History of Film
- EN3248 Topics in Film: The American Comedy
- EN3880A History of Non-Western Film
- EN4247 Film Theory

Band B Modules

- GEK1031 American Film
- GEK2020 Introduction to Film Art
- GEM1033 Religion and Film
- TS2238/SSA2218 Singapore Film: Performance and Identity

- TS3232 Performance and Social Space
- TS3238 Acting for the Screen
3.3.1.6 Gender Studies

Gender Studies is now a widely recognised interdisciplinary field of enquiry in the humanities and social sciences. The reason that this field has become prominent over the past thirty to forty years is closely tied to social changes in industrialised countries. The Minor in Gender Studies aims to develop both conceptual knowledge and key abilities as a foundation for systematic inquiry into gender-related matters. Conceptually, these modules help students to build up a nuanced understanding, from different disciplinary perspectives, of the ways in which gender exerts far-reaching impact on everyday encounters and lived realities. Students who have undergone this programme are expected to be able to critically evaluate the merits of alternative interpretations by building arguments for or against particular explanations.

Programme Requirements

Requirements for Cohort 2009 and Before:

Pass at least 24 MCs from the basket of Minor in Gender Studies modules, which include the following:

1. SC2220 Gender Studies (Essential Module)
2. XD3102 Gender Studies Across Disciplines (Essential Module)
3. a minimum of 8 MCs at Level-3000 (including XD3102)
4. a minimum of 12 MCs from the CORE Track

Elective Modules

Note 1:

A maximum of 8 MCs from the minor can be used to satisfy the requirements of a major or another minor.

Note to English Literature (EN) Major students reading Minor in Film Studies: Since students are allowed a MAXIMUM of 8 MCs to fulfil both the EN Major and Minor in Film Studies requirements, EN majors must take an extra EN-coded film module from Band A to fulfil the Film Studies Minor requirements. This extra EN-coded film module will NOT count towards EN Major requirements.

For reasons of staff availability and student enrolment, not all elective modules will necessarily be offered every academic year. Students are to check the Department website for the modules offered, and the relevant prerequisites and preclusion(s).

3.3.1.7 Geographical Information Systems

What is GIS?
GIS—or Geographical Information System—is a multidisciplinary technology for the collection, storage, manipulation, analysis, and display of all types of spatial information about locations and relations of different phenomena on the earth’s surface. The GIS analytical process is like the work of a detective trying to put all the pieces of evidence together to solve a mystery. GIS provides a means of integrating information in ways that help us understand and solve pressing research, planning, and management problems, such as tropical deforestation, rapid urbanisation, transportation planning, disease dispersal, hazard mitigation, and the impact of climate change. Using GIS to take the pulse of the Earth helps scientists plan, map, and model changes and trends to make better decisions for the future.

Students who choose to minor in GIS will gain experience using GIS software, as well as familiarity with various modern geospatial techniques, including GPS (Global Positioning Systems) and remote sensing. Completion of the minor will provide the student with skills and experience that are in great demand in today’s workplace, from government, private industry, to not-for-profit sectors. For example, the WHO has used GIS for emergency preparedness for flooding in SE Asia. In Singapore, the Urban Development Authority has used GIS in town planning and the National Environment Agency has used GIS to analyse patterns of dengue fever cases.

This Minor is open to all students.

Programme Requirements

Pass at least 24 MCs of modules, which include the following:
1. GE2215 Introduction to GIS

3.3.1.9 Health and Social Sciences

Trends in the 21st century such as the prominence of health and illness in everyday life, the increasing rates of illnesses associated with people's lifestyles, occupations, individual choices, governments' decisions and the relevance of ecological factors, all accentuate the importance of analysing health and illness systematically from the perspectives of the social sciences and humanities.

The objective of the Minor in HSS is to introduce students to the rich and varied expertise from the social sciences and humanities on health phenomena. The Minor in HSS focuses on three areas of health knowledge contributed by social sciences, and based on these areas of health knowledge, the Minor in HSS is designed to attain three learning outcomes.

The first two are knowledge outcomes:

1. Students will obtain basic knowledge on the influence of psychological, social, economic, cultural, historical, and environmental factors on health-related behaviour and attitudes as well as on illness and disability patterns in society and their consequences.
2. Students will be acquainted with the application of social science research approaches to the analysis of three areas of health knowledge:
   a. the impact of the psychological dimensions of individual behaviour and attitudes;
   b. the socio-economic, and cultural dimensions of individual and collective health-related behaviour, attitudes, and beliefs including the structure, dynamics and roles of health organisations and social support networks;
   c. the relevance of the economic and physical environment to the population's health.

The third learning outcome is related to ability:

3. Students will be able to search for and identify evidence-based social science research on health-related behaviour and attitudes as well as on illness and disability issues and patterns in society.

All modules read in fulfillment of the minor requirements should be graded. Modules taken on Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory basis may not be counted towards the minor requirements.

Note 2:
Students are allowed to use up to 8 MCs to meet the requirements for both the Minor and a Major or another Minor, at the same time; however, the credits for these modules would be counted ONCE. FASS students would still need to fulfill the MCs required for the Unrestricted Electives (outside major) requirement.

Note 3:
For students on overseas exchange, credit transfer of up to 8 MCs of relevant modules for the Minor may be accepted. Please refer to the Maximum Number of Credit Transfer for SEP Students for more information.

3.3.1.10 Interactive Media Development

With almost every aspect of our lives being influenced by interactive media, it is increasingly important for students from all backgrounds to be aware of how these new technologies are designed and developed. The interdisciplinary Minor in Interactive Media Development, open to students from any NUS faculty or discipline, is designed to support this need by providing an introduction to the theory and practice of interactive media development.

For Communication and New Media students, the Minor provides an opportunity for students to take a selected group of relevant Computer Science (CS) modules in a structured manner. These modules provide exposure to media production, media technology, and human computer interaction. Similarly, for Computer Science students, the Minor provides a structured way for students to take a selection of Communications and New Media (NM) modules related to game design, interactive art and entertainment, and interaction design. For other students, the Minor provides a chance for students who are interested in interactive media design and development to take a sampling of both CNM and CS modules, all of which are chosen to provide insight into the interactive media development process.

Programme Requirements
Pass at least 24 MCs of modules, which include the following:

1. a minimum of 8 MCs from NM module list
2. a minimum of 8 MCs from CS module list

A maximum of 8 MCs from the minor can be used to satisfy the requirements of a major or another minor.

3.3.1.11 Petroleum Exploration

The Minor in Petroleum Exploration would appeal to students who are interested in the upstream petroleum industry. Singapore is the world class hub for the petroleum industry in Southeast Asia. According to a survey in Nature (13th May 2011, v 473:243-244), there will be 13,000 unfilled petroleum geosciences jobs in the USA by 2030. Compared to 2008, by 2018 there will be a 35 % increase in geoscience jobs if retirements are included. These trends will undoubtedly be followed in Southeast Asia.

A Minor in Petroleum Exploration would appeal to students who are interested in a career in the upstream petroleum industry. They will learn how to apply the theory of petroleum exploration to real data sets provided by industry. Students will study the petroleum system on Singapore’s southern coast and islands. Students may take a field trip to a working petroleum field (Sabah/Sarawak/Brunei) to observe petroleum producing rocks. They will make visits to exploration, service and petroleum engineering companies in Singapore. The outcome will be that a student would be qualified to join petroleum companies directly or to go on to study for a higher degree.

Programme Requirements
Pass at least 24 MCs of modules which include the following:

1. GE2230 Energy Futures: Environmental and Sustainability
2. GE3244 Fundamentals of Petroleum Exploration
3. GE4324 Sediments and Sedimentary Basins
4. GE3243 Applied Petroleum Exploration
5. A maximum of 4 MCs from Foundation Science modules
6. A maximum of 4 MCs from Elective modules

Note 1: A maximum of 8 MCs from the Minor can be used to satisfy the requirements of a major or another minor.
Note 2: Students will be allowed to read either the Minor in Geosciences or the Minor in Petroleum Exploration, not both.
Note 3: Geography Majors will not be allowed to take the Minor in Petroleum Exploration as they cannot take a Minor with 4 core GE modules.

3.3.1.12 Religious Studies

What is the meaning of “religion” in the 21st century? Sigmund Freud sought to bring religion under the microscope of scientific rationality in his 1927 work The Future of an Illusion. Religion, answering back, might quote Mark Twain: “The reports of my death are greatly exaggerated.” Religion has always been a prominent force in human life, and, despite predictions to the contrary, it remains one today. In this region, it is impossible to understand our society or those of our neighbours without understanding the religions that permeate them. Moreover, by virtue of its secular state and pluralistic society, Singapore is well positioned to take a leading role in the study of religion. Religious Studies at NUS will involve the scholarly exploration both of the phenomenon of religion and of different religious traditions. Religious Studies, as a scholarly and intellectual discipline, transcends individual disciplines to consider beliefs, practices, texts, history and social functions of religion from a variety of disciplinary perspectives. This programme will train students to discuss — with respect and grace — some of the most volatile issues of our time.

3.3.1.13  Science, Technology, and Society

Science, Technology, and Society (STS) is for students from any NUS faculty or discipline who want to understand the immense influence of science and technology on modern social, political, religious, and cultural life. The core courses within STS are historical and sociological, but electives are offered across a broad range of departments and faculties. Students need no background in any particular discipline to do well in this Minor.

The Minor in STS is designed to:

1. Serve as a formal scholarly ‘meeting ground’ for students throughout the university who are curious about the science-technology-society relationship.
2. Present students with a basic yet critical history of modern science, engineering, and medicine, i.e., how, where, and when they arose, and why they came to have such inordinate influence in the modern world.
3. Present students with a basic understanding of how social scientists study the physical sciences, life sciences, technology, and medicine, and how these activities have become embedded in social processes.
4. Allow students to understand how science and technology differ from (and converge with) other realms of human thought and activity. To expose students to critical thinking on the ‘scientific method’, the manipulation/conservation of nature, and similar concepts.
5. Acquaint students with the idea that science and technology (as human understandings of/manipulations of nature) interact with social, political, cultural, religious, and other realms normally considered ‘outside’ nature. To expose students to the lively scholarly disagreements as to the depth and limits of this interaction.

Pass at least 24 MCs from the basket of minor in STS modules, which include the following:

1. HY2251 From the Wheel to the Web (Essential Module)

Urban Studies

It is estimated that the world’s urban population recently surpassed 50% of the total population. Asia remains less than 50% urbanised but is one of the most rapidly urbanising regions on Earth. International linkages between urban management professionals of various kinds are also increasing and Singapore is seen as a leader in many aspects of urban management, policy and planning. For these and other reasons, opportunities for urban professionals are likely to continue to increase.

Students will be offered the chance to develop expertise and skills in urban studies that would be an asset not only for those already majoring in an urban-related area, but also for the many others from various faculties who have an interest in urban-related careers. Students will get the opportunity to make explicit to employers their special strengths in this area. Students will be provided with a good balance of breadth of knowledge, practical skills, and theoretical depth in a range of urban-related fields. The minor is not conceived as an introduction to any major in urban studies or such like. Instead, it is to be seen purely as a minor which can enhance the degrees and employability of students taking a wide variety of existing majors. This Minor is open to all students.

Programme Requirements

Pass at least 24 MCs of modules, which include the following:

1. a minimum of 12 MCs from the Core modules, with
   a. a minimum of 4 MCs from RE-prefix modules
   b. a minimum of 4 MCs from GE-prefix modules
2. a minimum of 8 MCs of Elective modules
3. a minimum of 8 MCs at Level-3000 or higher

Note 1:
A minimum of 16 MCs must be modules taken outside the department(s) of the student’s major(s).

Note 2:
A maximum of 8 MCs from the minor can be used to satisfy the requirements of a major or another minor.

3.3.2 Double Major Programme

A Double Major consists of two single majors within the same faculty or from two different faculties.

Students intending to read a Double Major have to apply during the stipulated application period when they have completed 40 to 100 MCs, and have attained a minimum CAP of 3.5.

Both majors will be noted on the student’s transcript. In exceptional cases, the Faculty may design approved double major programmes in which case the requirements will be specific to the programme.

Students may withdraw from the Double Major Programme by informing the Dean’s Office of the home faculty. Students may also be asked to withdraw from the programme if they do not maintain the minimum academic standards required. Students who withdraw from the double major programme will have to re-declare a single major. Modules read to fulfil the requirements of the second major may be used to fulfil some from the Unrestricted Electives (outside of Major) requirements.

Total MCs required for graduation will be dependent on the requirements of each of the two majors and how much double counting is permitted as specified by the respective Faculties/Departments.

Tables 1 to 4 illustrate the minimum MCs required for the relevant degrees. Please refer to 3.2 Degree Requirements for other requirements that must be met for the respective degrees.

* Students must earn a minimum number of MCs from Level-3000 and Level-4000 modules of their major. The Faculty requires students to earn a minimum of 20 MCs from Level-3000 modules and a minimum of 40 MCs from Level-4000 modules or higher in the major. However, for both levels, some majors may require students to earn more than these minimums. Students may be allowed, in lieu of their level-4000 modules, a maximum of 2 level-5000 modules (subject department’s approval and module pre-requisites, if any), to fulfil graduation requirements. Note that some departments may as a matter of policy not allow undergraduates to read their graduate modules. No level-5000 Independent Studies Modules (ISMs) or level-6000 modules (including ISMs) will be open to undergraduates. Please refer to the requirements specified by the Department/Programme for each subject.

 A maximum of 8 MCs, where possible, from the Second Major can be double counted with the Primary Major.

 Breadth modules are not required for students reading a second major from another Faculty.

3.3.3 Double Degree Programme

A Double Degree consists of a combination of two separate degrees in two discipline areas from two different Faculties. Students can choose to devise their own Double Degree Programmes (DDPs) or enroll, in one of the existing specially customised DDPs.

Students who wish to devise their own DDPs must apply in writing to the Vice-Deans of both Faculties when they have completed between 60 and 80 MCs and attained a CAP of at least 4.0. Students must fulfill at least the honours requirements of their original degree.

Students who wish to enrol in the specially customised DDPs may apply for them after their first year. Students who apply must meet the requisite qualifications for the intended DDP.

To ensure that students entering DDPs have the capacity to handle the demands of such programmes, students who do not maintain a CAP of 4.0 in modules contributing to the original degree/home course and a CAP of 3.5 in modules contributing to the second degree for any two consecutive semesters will be required to withdraw from the DDP.

Degree Requirements

University Level Requirements:

1. Students need to satisfy one set of Singapore Studies (SS) and General Education Module (GEM) requirements only. The prevailing rules relating to satisfying the GEM requirements in the different subject groups shall apply. In accordance with the existing GEM requirements:
   a. Students taking double degree combinations involving degrees from faculties in Group A (Science and Technology) and Group B (Humanities and Social Sciences) must read one GEM each from the Subject Group A and Subject Group B.
   b. Students taking double degree combinations in which one of the degrees is from the School of Design & Environment (which comes under both Group A and B) must read one GEM each from Group A and Group B.
   c. Students taking double degree combinations involving degrees from faculties in Group B (Humanities and Social Sciences) or within the same faculty in Group B must read at least one GEM from Group A (Science and Technology).

2. If students read GEMS which are cross-listed with the second programme, and use them to fulfil the major requirement for the second degree, then they would need to read additional GEMS to fulfil the General Education requirement.

3. Students will not be required to read breadth modules as the degrees are from two different Faculties. The modules read from one Faculty will satisfy the breadth requirements of the other Faculty.

Faculty Requirements

As the two degrees are from two Faculties, both sets of faculty requirements must be fulfilled.
Major Requirements
At least two-thirds of each major must be fulfilled by distinct (i.e., not overlapping) modules. A minimum 60% of major credits of each of the degrees must be letter graded and factored in the CAP of each degree.

Unrestricted Electives
Students are not required to read Unrestricted Elective (UE) Modules under the DDP. However, if UE modules are read, these can be used to count towards the requirement of either degree programme. Modules double counted towards the major requirements of both degrees cannot be used to fulfill the requirements of a minor.

Maximum Period of Candidature
The maximum period of candidature will be six years. The two degree programmes must be undertaken and completed within a single continuous candidature period (save for the usual provisions for leave of absence).

Computation of CAP
1. The CAP for each degree programme will be computed separately, and the two CAPs, one each for the respective degree programme, will be reflected separately on the transcript.
2. Students are required to declare every semester which modules they want to use to fulfil the requirements of each of the two degrees.
3. The grades from modules (Singapore Studies, GEMs, or majors) that may be double counted will be used twice to compute the CAP for each of the two degrees.
4. If UE modules have been read, the grades obtained will be used to compute the CAP for either one of the two degrees.

Minimum MC Requirements for Double Degrees
The minimum MC requirements for double degrees are as follow:

Double Honours Degrees – 200 MCs
Double Honours and Bachelor Degrees – 180 MCs

The actual total MCs will be dependent on the requirements of each of the two degrees and how much double counting is permitted as specified by the respective Faculties/Departments.

Award of Degree
Two separate degrees will be awarded and two degree scrolls issued, one for each degree.

For more details on faculty-designed Double Degree Programmes, please refer to Section R, Part II of this bulletin (the Curriculum Book on University-wide Institutes and Programmes, Other Multidisciplinary/Special Programmes).

3.3.4 Degree Programmes With Other Universities

3.3.4.1 Joint Honours Degree in Actuarial Studies and Economics from Australian National University (ANU)/National University of Singapore (NUS)

The Joint Degree programme in Actuarial Studies and Economics is offered by the School of Finance and Applied Statistics, Faculty of Economics and Commerce, ANU and the Department of Economics, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, NUS, leading to the degree of ANU/NUS Bachelor of Social Sciences with Joint Honours in Actuarial Studies and Economics. (Please refer to: http://studyat.anu.edu.au/programmes/4444HBSOCS;overview.html)
A student in this programme will spend four semesters at NUS (for economics and the foundational courses) and four semesters at ANU (for the actuarial courses).

The programme contains the core of the Economics Honours curriculum as well as the actuarial studies that prepares students for the actuarial career. For more information on the actuarial education and profession, please go to: http://www.actuaries.asn.au/. The programme also includes elements of the NUS broad-based curriculum.

For NUS students, semester 1 of the programme will begin at NUS. Students will spend their first three semesters at NUS, joining ANU in their fourth semester. The eighth and final semester will be spent at NUS.

NUS students will pay NUS tuition fees throughout the course of study. There will be no additional tuition fees for studying at ANU, but students are responsible for their own medical/health insurance, travel, personal and living expenses and other incidental expenses when studying abroad.

Admission into the programme is highly competitive, and is available only to first-year students of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. No more than eight students will be selected for each intake. Selection of NUS students will take place after they have completed two semesters of study at NUS and will be based on academic performance. Students who wish to apply to the Joint Degree Programme must ensure that they complete the modules specified in the joint-degree programme for the first two semesters of study within their first year. Unsuccessful applicants may continue to work towards the Honours degree in Economics or any other major in the Faculty. The Programme’s academic coordinator will be able to offer advice to interested students at the start of each semester.

For information on pursuing an actuarial career and joining the Singapore Actuarial Society (SAS) as a member, please visit the following SAS website: http://www.actuaries.org.sg/.

Further information on the programme is available at: http://www.fas.nus.edu.sg/ecs/undergraduate/anu_nus.html

3.3.4.2 Joint Degree Bachelor of Philosophy (Hons.) (Australian National University) and Bachelor of Art (Hons.) (NUS)

The ANU/NUS joint degree programme (JDP) is aimed at very high-performing students in the Humanities and Social Sciences. Both the Bachelor of Philosophy (Ph.B.) (ANU) and the University Scholars Programme (USP) (NUS) are research-focused undergraduate degrees. They are designed for high-achieving students who want to study in-depth and at the highest level, a more challenging programme in the Humanities and Social Sciences. This distinctive four-year degree programme leads to a qualification awarded by two of the world’s leading universities. This programme is only available to FASS USP students majoring in English Literature, History, Philosophy, Theatre Studies and Political Science.

For more details, please refer to the Other Multidisciplinary/Special Programmes section of the Bulletin or refer to USP web-link for the programme http://www.usp.nus.edu.sg/curriculum/joint-degree/anu-fass/index.html

3.3.4.3 Joint Degree Bachelor of Arts with University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill

This is a jointly taught, assessed and awarded undergraduate degree offered by the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences at the National University of Singapore (NUS) and the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (UNC-CH). The degree will combine the strengths of both curricula, integrate international experience fully into a student’s course of study, and confer a doubly validated qualification.

FASS students who successfully complete Honours requirements in this programme will be awarded Bachelor of Arts with Honours by NUS. To graduate with Honours from UNC, FASS students must complete the Honours Programme requirements at UNC.

The joint degree will be a common and distinctive programme, different from the degrees in either of the two universities. It will combine the broad, structured General Education component of the UNC-CH degree, with the extended, in-depth study
Students will stay at the host institution for a minimum of two and a maximum of four semesters. The period at the host university may occur at any time after (but not including) the first semester of study, and before (but not including) the eighth and last. It is likely, and recommended, that NUS students go relatively early in their course of study (semesters 3-5), in order to benefit from UNC-CH’s general education offerings.

Unlike SEP, students will transfer grades as well as credits. Grades will be converted using an agreed and equitable scale. Modules and grades may be used towards any part of the student’s programme of study, including electives, major, minor and general education requirements.

This programme is available to FASS students majoring in Economics, English Literature, Geography, History and Political Science as of AY2007/08.

For programme application and details, please refer to the Faculty website http://www.fas.nus.edu.sg/intl/JointBA-NorthCarolina.html

3.3.4.4 Double Degree Bachelor of Arts (Honours) with Waseda University (School of International Liberal Studies)

NUS and Waseda University have a double degree programme (DDP) which provides opportunities for up to 5 students of NUS’ University Scholars Programme and Waseda University’s School of International Liberal Studies (SILS) students to study at the partner institution. The participating NUS faculties in the DDP are the Faculty of Arts & Social Sciences and the Faculty of Science. NUS students who successfully complete the DDP will be issued with a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) from NUS and a Bachelor's degree from Waseda University.

3.4 Special Programmes

3.4.1 Student Exchange Programme

Students with good grades may apply for the Student Exchange Programme (SEP) in which they spend a period of time (a maximum of two semesters) abroad pursuing courses that complement their work at NUS. The choice of modules is subject to approval by the Head of Department or designate and the length of study is subject to approval by the Dean or designate.

Students in the SEP are granted credit transfer but not grade transfer for modules that are graded with a satisfactory pass and that have been approved as equivalent NUS modules by the Head of Department or designate.

Students intending to participate in SEP should be aware of the following policies and rules:

1. Minimum Residency requirements - a student registered for a Bachelor’s degree must do the greater of:
   a. 50% of required MCs for the degree programme;
   OR
   b. 80 MCs at NUS.
2. These MCs must be earned from graded modules with assigned grade points. This means that the credits that students transfer from SEP must not exceed the minimum residency requirements.
3. Credit transfer can be done as long as students pass and receive credits for the courses read. This is applicable to both courses read on a graded basis and/or pass/fail basis.
4. A minimum of 60% of the Programme/Major must be graded and factored into the CAP.
5. A maximum of 8 MCs of Minor modules may be read on SEP to fulfil Minor requirements.
6. If the maximum MC to be excluded from CAP has been exceeded, students will have to make up by reading graded modules required for graduation.

7. Students admitted under the Mother Tongue Bonus Point Scheme (MTBP) may read modules while on SEP to fulfil MTBP requirements, under the following conditions:
   a. The SEP must be recognised by FASS and NUS;
   b. The module(s) read on SEP must be taught in the relevant mother tongue;
   c. Module(s) read on SEP must be on graded basis and not on a pass/fail basis at the partner university. If the module is not offered on a graded basis, credits will not be transferred and cannot be used to fulfil the MTBP requirements; and
   d. A maximum of 16 MCs of modules read on SEP may be used to fulfil the MTBP requirements. However, a maximum of 8 MCs may be used to fulfil the Minor requirements.

Students who have advanced placement credits and exemptions (APC) granted for modules taken and passed prior to admission to NUS, for modules completed at another tertiary institution recognised by the University, or based on performance in placement tests set by the relevant Faculty/School, are to refer to Section 3.4.1.1 for the calculations of maximum ungraded MCs allowed.

Maximum Ungraded MCs Allowed Towards Graduation Requirements for Students without APC (For 07 cohort students onwards)

If a student participates in SEP without any APC, the maximum number of MCs of ungraded modules, to count towards graduation requirements is subjected to the rules listed above. Ungraded modules refer to modules whose grades are not factored into CAP; including credits from overseas modules and other NUS modules taken on S/U basis (maximum of 12 MCs).

Example 1
A student reading a B.A. (120 MCs) has read 60 MCs of modules graded thus far and has also accumulated 8 MCs of modules graded ‘S’. The student will need to read a minimum of 20 MCs of graded NUS modules to fulfil the minimum residency requirements.

3.5 Academic Awards

Awards

Medals and book prizes are awarded only once in the academic year, after the Semester 2 Examination. In all instances, a prize-winner must be of sufficient merit. He/She must have passed all modules attempted and must be a good overall student. No award will be made unless there is a candidate of sufficient merit.

In general, to be eligible for consideration for an Academic Year Award, a student must have completed a minimum workload of 40 MCs, 80 MCs and 120 MCs for the Year 1, Year 2 and Year 3 awards respectively. In addition, students must have completed at least 36 MCs of graded modules within the academic year of the award.

The eligibility criterion for consideration for Subject Awards requires a student to have completed a minimum workload of 36 MCs within the academic year of which, at least 28 MCs must be graded modules. The exception to this ruling would be students who are involved in internships, accelerated programmes or double degree programmes. For these students, they need to have a minimum of 24 MCs graded modules. In addition, students must have also completed a minimum of 16 MCs in the subject within the academic year.

For a full list of the medals and book prizes for FASS students, please visit the following website at: http://www.fas.nus.edu.sg/undergrad/toknow/academic_awards/medals_and_book_prize.html

Dean’s Scholars List

The Dean’s Scholars List is an award given to the top 1% of each cohort, with meritorious academic achievement, at the end of each semester (excluding the special term). There is therefore no specific cut-off as only the top 1% of eligible students are selected. Selection should be based on the Semester Average Grade Point (SAP), subject to a CAP that is above the current pass with merit cut-off. Those in their fourth year of study must have a CAP of at least 4.0.

To be eligible for consideration to be placed on the Dean’s Scholars List, students have to read a minimum workload of 16 MCs in a semester of which, at least 12 MCs must be graded modules. Double degree students must complete a minimum of 12 MCs of graded modules that fulfil FASS requirements.

The selection will be made from the fourth official week of the release of exam results.

Dean’s List

The Dean’s List is an award given to the top 5% of each cohort, with meritorious academic achievement, at the end of each semester (excluding the special term). There is therefore no specific cut-off as only the top 5% of eligible students are selected. Selection should be based on the Semester Average Grade Point (SAP), subject to a CAP that is above the current pass with merit cut-off. Those in their fourth year of study must have a CAP of at least 4.0.

To be eligible for consideration to be placed on the Dean’s List, students have to read a minimum workload of 16 MCs in a semester of which, at least 12 MCs must be graded modules. Double degree students must complete a minimum of 12 MCs of graded modules that fulfil FASS requirements.

The selection will be made from the fourth official week of the release of exam results.

Dean’s Commendation

As a way to encourage and motivate students, the Faculty commends those who show great improvement in their studies. Students will be selected on a semestral basis (excluding Special Term) using Semester Average Grade Point (SAP). The selection is based on the difference in SAP between the current and previous semester.

The selection will be made from the fourth official week of the release of exam results.

The required improvement on SAP is reflected in the table below, based on the year of study as dictated by the course code.

To be eligible for selection, a student:
1. Must not be refused readmission in the semester of selection.
2. Must have a CAP of at least 2.00 in the semester of selection.
3. Must have a minimum workload of 16 MCs in the semester, of which at least 12 MCs must be graded modules that count towards FASS workload. Students on Double Degree Programme must have a minimum workload of 16 MCs in the semester, of which at least 12 MCs must be graded modules that count towards FASS workload.

Candidates may apply for credit & grade transfer/module exemption, subject to the approval of the Faculty. Students who would like to request a transfer of credit & grade or seek exemption from taking modules should submit the application(s) within the first semester of study, preferably at the point of admission. Only modules already completed at level 5000 and higher, and relevant to the programme will be considered for possible credit & grade transfer/module exemptions. The modules taken must have substantially the same learning objectives, content, and level of sophistication as the corresponding NUS modules from which the student is to be exempted. The modules must have been taken no more than five years before the date of admission. Generally candidates may gain exemption only for NUS level-5000 modules. Level-6000 modules may also be considered on a case-by-case basis. However, exemptions are not allowed for the Graduate Research Seminar module. Credit & grade transfer/module exemption is also subject to the following conditions:
