

A Message

FROM THE PRESIDENT

23 April 2019

Dear Alumnus,

Building A Safer and More Supportive Community

We have received many comments from our community and members of the public about one of our students, Miss Monica Baey, who was a victim of a sexual misconduct offence. We are sorry that she had to surface her concerns on social media for the University to take notice. We fell short in providing her support from the start, and we apologise. We hope to set things right.

NUS does not condone nor tolerate any form of sexual misconduct on our campuses, and we will take a hard stand on unacceptable behaviour to keep our students safe.

In this regard, I would like to share with you a message from our Chairman Mr Hsieh Fu Hua about the NUS Review Committee on Sexual Misconduct.

Should you have any concerns or feedback about sexual misconduct on our campuses, please email oarconnect@nus.edu.sg.

We hope for your strong support as we build a safer and more supportive environment for our students.

Thank you.

With best wishes,

Professor Tan Eng Chye (Science '85)
NUS President

22 April 2019

Dear Alumnus,

We refer to the recent announcement that NUS President Professor Tan Eng Chye will convene a review committee on sexual misconduct. The Board of Trustees views sexual misconduct on our campuses with grave concern, and has decided to appoint Mdm Kay Kuok, a member of the Board and Chairman of the Board's Nominating Committee, to chair this committee. The committee will review the disciplinary process (including sanctions) and support frameworks relating to sexual misconduct at NUS, in the light of concerns raised by Miss Monica Baey.

The initial members of the committee will comprise Singapore Management University President Professor Lily Kong, Board member and WongPartnership Managing Partner Mr Ng Wai King, Prof Tan, and a representative from the NUS Students' Union.

We note the strong public interest in this matter. The committee will proceed swiftly and decisively.

Hsieh Fu Hua
Chairman
NUS Board of Trustees

Mdm Kay Kuok

Mdm Kay Kuok has been a member of the National University of Singapore's (NUS) Board of Trustees since 1 April 2008. She is a Barrister-at-Law from Gray's Inn, London, and works full-time in her family business, the Kuok Group of Companies that is involved in trading, manufacturing, property and shipping and the Shangri-La Group of hotels.

Mdm Kuok is also the Chairman of the Yale-NUS College Governing Board as well as the Board of the National Healthcare Group. She has served on several community service and statutory boards including the Singapore Tourism Board, South West CDC, National Arts Council, Singapore Environment Council, and National Environment Agency. Mdm Kuok received several honours and awards including the Public Service Medal (PSM) in 1998 and the Public Service Star (BBM) in 2005.
