PROGRAMME DETAILS
4	Academic Content	In view of the COVID-19 situation, almost all of UCLA Summer Sessions' catalogue has now been moved online for Session A. The best way for students to find courses they are interested in would be to go to our online course schedule at: https://sa.ucla.edu/ro/Public/SOC . The classes can be filtered by session and subject area. Please pay close attention to the course timings. Some of the courses will still have a live lecture at a specific time. UCLA is encouraging most of its departments to have asynchronous instruction, but students should still do the

		conversion to their local time zone to make sure they are able to make any necessary time commitments. Course Descriptions You may visit the Registrar's website for course descriptions or view the description of a specific course you have selected on the Schedule of Classes. When viewing the desired course, select the "Section" number to access additional information about the class. UCLA Course Numbering Each UCLA course is numbered from 1-599 (e.g., English 101). Below is a description of the UCLA course numbering system. Please select courses that best meet your current academic standing. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 1-99: Lower division courses designed for undergraduate freshmen and sophomores • 100-199: Upper division courses designed for undergraduate juniors and seniors • 200-499: Graduate and professional courses • 500-599: Graduate courses - open ONLY to current UCLA graduate students Course Restrictions Although the majority of summer courses are open to visiting non-UCLA students, a select few summer courses are restricted to "UCLA students only". To view course restrictions, visit the Schedule of Classes, search for your desired course, then click on the "Section" number. Requisites Some courses may require you to have taken specific courses or fulfilled certain requirements to enroll. Transcripts or proof of completion of a requisite course is not required for visiting Summer Sessions students. Although proof of requisite completion is not required, visiting students should have experience comparable to the listed requisite. Please read the description of the courses you intend to take before enrolling to decide if they are right for you. Source (and for more information)
5	Eligibility Requirements	NUS' generic eligibility requirements apply, please see NUS GRO website for details.

7	Application Procedure	Please apply for this programme via EduRec first and then wait for GRO to provide additional information on applying/registering at UCLA. Please email Jacob O'Quinn (jacob@nus.edu.sg) once you have applied for the online option for UCLA Summer Session. This is to ensure you receive the Registration Fee waiver. Students who do not wait for further instruction from GRO run the risk of accidentally being charged the Registration Fee and GRO is not able to guarantee a refund from UCLA.

		More information on the registration process can be found here: International students may register for UCLA Summer Sessions by completing an online Registration Form. UCLA Registration opens 15 February 2020. The USD$400 registration fee is waived for NUS students*. After completing the registration, you will receive access to enrolment on MyUCLA. *If prompted to pay the USD$400 Registration Fee, please check with NUS GRO by writing to jacob@nus.edu.sg before proceeding with payment. Registration Deadlines for international students: Session A: 10 June 2020 (for both NUS through EduRec and UCLA through its application/registration portal)
8	Module Mapping	You can start the module mapping process after you apply in myISIS and accept the offer for the programme. Click here for a step-by-step guide on applying for module mapping. Also note the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Maximum of 2 modules (up to 10 MCs) can be mapped per summer / research programme during Special Term (May – August). • Maximum of 1 module (up to 5 MCs) can be mapped per winter / research programme during year-end vacation (December – January). • Total of 12 MCs from a maximum of 2 overseas summer/winter and research programmes can be mapped without having to pay NUS tuition.
