Programme Dates: 1 July to 12 July 2024

Application Deadline: 24 March 2024

ESTIMATED COST OF PARTICIPATION
1	Programme Fee	Free. Accommodation is covered as part of the programme.  Airfare and personal expenses are not included.
2	Financial Aid available through NUS GRO	Financial Aid options will not be available for programmes/classes that are conducted fully online. If programmes are hybrid, only on-site participation would qualify a student for financial aid. If a physical/on-site programme switches to fully online before the commencement of the programme, NUS reserves the right to adjust or retract the financial aid package.  Eligible students will receive the NUS Southeast Asia Experience Award (SEA) which can be applied through EduRec. More information about the SEA can be found on the GRO website .

PROGRAMME DETAILS
3	Content	AUN – Thailand Summer camp [CU x MU] aims to introduce students to the vibrant landscape of medical tourism in Thailand while aligning with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly Goal 3: Good Health and Well-being. The initiative offers a unique educational opportunity for students to explore and comprehend the intricate interplay between healthcare practices, cultural contexts, and economic considerations in a globalized world. AUN students will gain firsthand insights into the field of medical tourism and the similarities and differences between Thai traditional and Western medicine. This immersive experience contributes directly to Goal 3 by fostering an understanding of diverse healthcare systems, promoting cross-cultural collaboration, and addressing the global challenges associated with ensuring access to quality healthcare for all.
