COVID-19-related updates:
Due to the COVID-19 situation, King's has announced that they are offering the KCL Undergraduate Online Summer School which gives you the opportunity to experience the UK higher education system from anywhere in the world. King's will use online lectures, group seminars and guest speakers to make summer classes as engaging and informative as possible.   Students may apply for module mapping and transfer a maximum of eight (8) MCs (this is applicable only to electronic summer programmes 2021). Please note that some Schools or Faculties (including School of Computing) will not approve module mapping for remote or online courses. Please check with your home School or Faculty Dean's Office to determine if module mapping can be approved for remote/online courses before applying to the partner university.

		Scholarship
		King's is offering a small number of Summer Online @ King's scholarships for the 2021 King's Undergraduate Summer School.

		Scholarships cover the cost of tuition fees for your chosen module, and successful applicants will be required to:

		    1. Write a 300-word blog post on your Summer @ King's
		    2. Provide a short one-minute video testimonial on their experience
		    3. Attend one online ambassador event in the 2021/22 academic year

		Applications are now open and more information on scholarship requirements and when to apply is available here. Applications deadline is 30 April 2021.

2	Financial Aid Available Through NUS GRO	Financial Aid options will not be available for programmes/classes that are conducted fully online. If programmes are hybrid, only on-site participation would qualify a student for financial aid. If a physical/on-site programme switches to fully online before the commencement of the programme, NUS reserves the right to adjust or retract the financial aid package.

PROGRAMME DETAILS
3	Academic Content	King's Undergraduate Online Summer School offers a wide range of modules spanning subject areas such as health and science, law, governance, business management, culture and ancient languages. For more information on modules: https://www.kcl.ac.uk/summer/university-level/online-summer-school King's Undergraduate Online Summer School modules comprise 150 study hours over three weeks, which includes 45 hours of online learning activities and live classes, as well as independent study, team project work and assessment preparation. All students will receive a final mark on their Record of Agreed Results (transcripts), which facilitates credit transfer if needed. The Summer Society Attending the Online Undergraduate Summer School automatically enrols you into King's Summer Society. Get involved in a variety of online social activities including a traditional British pub quiz, take advantage of live streams from London's key cultural institutions and interact with current King's undergraduates throughout the summer. The series of wider skills sessions are designed to help you build for success, network internationally and get the most out of your summer online experience at King's.
4	Eligibility Requirements	NUS's generic eligibility requirements apply, please see GRO website for details. King's requires NUS students to have: • NUS CAP of 4.0 out of 5.0

		• the necessary English proficiency level defined by King's Please refer to the host university's website for more information.
5	Application Procedure at Host University	Follow King's application instruction stated here: https://www.kcl.ac.uk/summer/applying You may refer to the step-by-step application guide https://www.kcl.ac.uk/summer/assets/kings-apply-guidelines-partners-alumni-2021.pdf Please login to King's Apply https://apply.kcl.ac.uk/.
