E. Accommodations

i) University Accommodation

Tsinghua will prioritise university-level exchange students with on-campus accommodation at Zijing Foreign Student Apartments.

The apartment charges different prices for different room types. Typical double room charges RMB 40 per day and single room charges RMB 80 per day. Students may visit http://is.tsinghua.edu.cn/publish/isscen/11920/2018/20180704135159330698035/20180704135159330698035_.html for more details.

As there are limited on-campus accommodation, exchange students who have received Tsinghua University’s Admission Notice are required to reserve the rooms in advance by the specific deadline and to follow the application instructions found in the Foreign Students Dormitory Application System along with the admission package.

ii) Private Accommodation

Private accommodation is expensive nearby the university. Prices may vary from RMB1000 to RMB 2000 RMB a month for just one room rent to several thousands for the whole set of apartment. It is usually through real estate agencies can students find suitable accommodations.

Exchange students can make reference to the off-campus accommodation information available in Accommodation Guide for International Students:

F. Visa

Consular/Visa Regulation

Exchange students in China are required to apply for student visa (X2 visa for those intending to study in China for a period of no more than 180 days... and X1 visa for those intending to study in China for a period of more than 180 days).

You will receive the admission letter and visa application form (JW202) once you are accepted by the host university for the student exchange programme. Exchange students are required to apply for the student visa in person at the China Visa Application Service Centre in Singapore with the relevant documents before the start of the academic semester.
