ix) Module restrictions and pre-requisites	As a rule, undergraduate students are not permitted to take master level courses (any exceptions to this rule will be discussed and decided by LMU). At LMU, courses related to the subject areas below are not open to exchange students. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Business Administration • Medicine and Dentistry • Pharmacy • Veterinary Science • Special fee-paying programs offered by individual departments
D. Application

i) Procedures	Students can apply for SEP one year in advance through their home faculty in NUS between September and June. Please look out for your faculty's announcement regarding the application period. Once you have been selected by your home faculty for SEP, your faculty will contact you and provide information regarding application with your host university. Please prepare the necessary documents before the start of the application period at your host university. Nominated NUS students will be contacted by LMU via email on the latest application procedures. Otherwise, students may refer to the information found here: https://www.uni-muenchen.de/studium/studium_int/erasmus_lmexchange/index.html Students need to apply online through LMU's Application System. After completing the online application, student needs to print out the application form (a print version can be generated in the application system). The application form has to be stamped and signed by the coordinator of your home faculty at NUS and sent to NUS Registrar's Office through your Dean's Office. NUS Registrar's Office will consolidate all application and supporting documents from various NUS faculties and schools and send a batch delivery to LMU. The longer you took to apply to LMU, the later you will get a reply on your application status. We recommend that you start your application once you receive the email from LMU and get everything done before mid-December before the administrative offices slowed down for the year-end holidays.
ii) Deadlines	All NUS student must abide by the internal application deadline set by their home faculty for exchange participation in the following academic year. After clearing the internal application and selection process, students have to take note of the application deadline set by the host university. Deadline for submitting application to host university: Semester 1: 15 May Semester 2: 15 November Application will be processed on a first-come-first-served basis. NUS students are encouraged to submit their application as soon as possible so that they can get the official acceptance letter earlier to support the German visa application. Failure to submit a formal application to the host university will result your exchange being forfeited even if you have been selected by NUS for the exchange.

E. Accommodations

i) University Accommodation	The “Studentenwerk” is responsible for providing accommodation for LMUexchange students. The allocation of rooms is, however, coordinated at the International Office. For more information, please refer to: www.lmu.de/international/incoming/housing. Students wishing to apply for student accommodation should tick the appropriate box in the online application form for admission. Applications arriving after the deadline cannot be considered. Due to the housing shortage in Munich, please take note that student accommodation might not be available. Students who manage to secure the student accommodation managed by the Studentenwerk München are expected to commit to a stated duration of stay on contract. The contract could end in late July, late August or in September and there is no guarantee that there will be vacancy for your preferred contract end date. Students who have contract that ends in August or September are expected to pay for the rental until August or September. There will be no refund of the rental if you leave the student accommodation earlier. Deposit for the student accommodation will only be returned to you after you have fulfilled the conditions for the full refund of deposit. It takes approximately four months for the rental deposit (if applicable) to be returned to you.
ii) Private Accommodation	The Munich Student Union (Studentenwerk München) is your contact for all questions about living in Munich even if you don’t apply for university housing. The Studentenwerk website describes the process and available support for your off-campus housing hunt, and provides additional tips and advice on where to look (in German) for private housing. For more information about private accommodation, please refer to this link.

F. Visa

Consular/Visa Regulation	EU citizens and citizens from the following countries do not need a visa to enter Germany: Australia, Canada, Honduras, Iceland, Israel, Japan, Korea, Liechtenstein, Monaco, New Zealand, Norway, San Marino, Switzerland and the United States. Students from all other countries must apply for a visa for study purposes via the German diplomatic representation in their home country. You must not under any circumstances travel to Germany on a tourist visa.
--	---

	All students are advised to apply for the necessary visa immediately after they received the official offer letter/email from their host university. For more visa information, please refer to: www.lmu.de/international/incoming/visa Some visa application process could take up to 2 months to process. Your exchange at the host university depends on the clearance by the immigration of the host country. After entering Germany, you will have to apply for a residence permit at the local "Auslaenderbehorde" (Immigration Office) if you are staying for more than three months. For more visa information, please refer to this link. For more guidance on the visa application, please login NUS VPN and access the information on SharePoint shared in the pre-departure briefing slides.
G. Safety, Health & Medical Insurance
i) Health/Medical Insurance	Adequate health insurance is mandatory for all exchange students. LMU strongly recommends that students arrive with adequate travel insurance to cover them until you are officially registered as students at LMU. You should then take LMU's German health insurance cover for the duration of your stay at LMU. To avoid unnecessary cost, you should not take out any other health insurance for their semester abroad before coming to Germany. Please note that travel insurance for the duration of your stay is not enough and will not be accepted in German during the Resident Permit registration. Accident, personal and third party liability insurance for the duration of stay in Germany is strongly recommended. Detailed information can be found here: www.lmu.de/international/incoming/insurance For more information on NUS insurance, please refer to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • https://myportal.nus.edu.sg/studentportal/student-insurance/all/ • https://nus.edu.sg/uhc/docs/default-source/insurance/frequently-asked-questions-on-covid-19.pdf Students are encouraged to take up additional insurance to cover themselves while abroad.
ii) Emergency Number at host university	+49 89 2180 – 2019 110 (for police) 112 (for medical services and fire brigade)

H. Cost of Living

i) Estimated Monthly Living Expenses

Breakdown of Costs	Cost
Accommodation	€200 - €300
Food	€100
Insurance	€80
Others (Entertainment, clothes)	€75 - €120
Monthly Estimate	€455 - €600

The IsarCard Semester is an optional season ticket that is valid for the duration of one semester. This ticket costs €193 and entitles students to unlimited travel within the MVV network.

In order to receive a residence permit, you need to present to the Ausländerbehörde (local foreigner's registration office) a statement of financial support proving that you have at least €735 to live on for each month of your stay. This can either be a bank statement, a notarized parental letter or a scholarship certificate.
