- (a) Full-time Active Local & International Undergraduate Students
- (b) Full-time Active Local & International Graduate Students
- (c) Full-time Active Local & International Non-graduating Students
- (d) Full-time Active Continuing Professional Education (CPE) Students
- (e) Part-time Active Local & International Undergraduate and Graduate Students (admitted from AY2026 onwards)

Note: Local refers to Singaporeans or Singapore Permanent Residents.

Coverage

The insurance pays upon death, permanent disablement and reasonable and necessary medical expenses for treatment of injury caused solely by an accident and not arising from sickness or pre-existing medical conditions, subject to the policy limits, terms and conditions.

Period of Insurance

(a) Full/Part-time Undergraduate Students	From 1 Aug of the year of admission to conferment date
(b) Full/Part-time Graduate Students
(c) Full-time Non-Graduating Students	From candidature start date to conferment date
(d) Full-time Continuing Professional Education Students
(e) Ad-hoc Groups	Dates provided by NUS

- For special cases, coverage period will be as advised by NUS.
- Coverage for international students will start on the date of arrival in Singapore or one-month prior to the insurance start date whichever is later. For example, new international undergraduate students, whose insurance cover would ordinarily start on 1 August, will be covered from 1 July instead, if they are in Singapore.
- Coverage will cease for students awaiting conferment date and no Health Service Fee billed.

Geographical Scope of Cover

24 hours worldwide.

The insurance does not cover travel overseas intentionally for treatment except for international students who return to their home country for treatment.

Extensions

- (a) Reimburses Goods and Services Tax charged on medical expenses;
- (b) Covers first year international students upon their arrival in Singapore or one (1) month prior to the insurance start date whichever is later;
- (c) Covers first year students who
 - participate in the freshmen orientation and any activities organised by NUS, NUS' student societies and/or NUS' clubs (including outside NUS' campus);
 - Visit the NUS campuses for administrative/course related reasons and which may be held prior to the student's insurance start date.
 If the student does not matriculate or if the offer from NUS is withdrawn, the student will be covered for follow-up treatment up to 3 months from the date of accident.
- (d) Covers all programs, activities, events, sports and competitions organized, authorised and/or approved by NUS, NUS students' societies and/or its clubs or in which the student participates as a representative of NUS, held in Singapore or overseas;
- (e) Covers scuba diving for research and leisure scuba diving if it is organized, authorised and/or approved by NUS, NUS' student societies and/or NUS' clubs or in which the student participates as a representative of NUS, held in Singapore or overseas.
- (f) Covers radiation, chemical contamination and similar hazards for students who are involved in laboratory work in NUS or a collaborator's laboratory in Singapore or overseas;
- (g) Covers HIV/AIDs accidentally contracted in the course of work for students of the medical, nursing, dental and similar health related faculties/schools.
- (h) Full terrorism
- (i) Riot, strike, civil commotion, hijack, murder, assault
- (j) Disappearance

NUS Group Personal Accident Insurance (GPA)

Some Definitions

Accident / Accidental	means a sudden, unexpected physical event, which happens during the period of insurance and which must be the only and direct cause of injury.
Act of terrorism	means an act (which may include using or threatening force or violence) by any person or group, committed for political, religious, ideological or similar purposes, with the aim of influencing any government or to put the public, or any section of the public, in fear.
Chinese physician	means a registered practitioner who is licensed to practice traditional Chinese medicine, including herbalist, acupuncturist or bone-setter, in accordance with the applicable laws of the country in which such practice is granted. He/she cannot be the insured member or the insured member's family member, or his/her business associates including any business partner, employers or employees.
Comatose state	means a state of profound unconsciousness, characterised by the absence of spontaneous eye openings, response to painful stimuli, and vocalisation. The diagnosis must be supported by evidence of all of the following: - No response to external stimuli for at least 30 days; - Life support measures are necessary to sustain life; - Brain damage resulting in permanent neurological deficit which must be assessed at least 30 days after the onset of the coma; and - The comatose state must be confirmed by our registered medical practitioner.
Dental Treatment	means treatment to restore sound and natural teeth and which is necessary due to an accident.
Injury	means damage or harm caused to the body by an external force suffered during the period of insurance and which is caused only and directly by an accident. This does not include all medical conditions, diseases, sickness, bacterial infections or viral infections, even if these conditions resulted from, or are connected with, the accident.
Loss of fingers or toes	means loss by complete physical severance through or above a metacarpophalangeal or metatarsophalangeal joint.
Loss of hearing	means loss by complete physical severance through or above a metacarpophalangeal or metatarsophalangeal joint.
Loss of limb	means loss by complete physical severance of a hand at or above the wrist or of a foot at or above the ankle.
Loss of sight	means total and irrecoverable loss of all sight in any eye rendering the insured member absolutely blind in that eye and beyond remedy by surgical or other treatment.
Loss of speech	means total loss of the ability to speak and is beyond remedy by surgical or other treatment.
Medically necessary	Medically necessary means that a medical service or supply is necessary and appropriate for the diagnosis or treatment of an injury of the insured member based on generally accepted western medical practice in Singapore. A medical service or supply will not be considered medically necessary if: (a) It is provided only as a convenience to the insured member or medical provider; (b) It is not appropriate treatment for the insured member's diagnosis or symptoms; (c) It exceeds (in scope, duration or intensity) the level of care that is necessary to provide safe, adequate and appropriate diagnosis or treatment; (d) It is experimental; (e) It is for social or domestic reasons or for reasons which are not directly connected with treatment; or (f) It is a matter of personal choice.
Medical expenses	Medical expense means reasonable expenses incurred for treatment as a result of an injury for medical, surgical, hospital and nursing fee prescribed by a registered medical practitioner.
Permanent	means having lasted 12 consecutive months and at the expiry of that period, being beyond hope of improvement.

Permanent disablement means disablement that results solely, directly and independently of all other causes from the injury and which occurs within 12 months of the accident in which injury was sustained, and:

- (a) Falls into one of the categories listed in the Table of Compensation; or
- (b) Is a disablement which, having lasted for a continuous and uninterrupted period of at least 12 months, is at the expiry of that period, beyond hope of improvement.

Permanent total disablement means disablement that results solely, directly and independently of all other causes from the injury and which occurs within 12 months of the accident in which injury was sustained which, having lasted for a continuous and uninterrupted period of at least 12 months, will in all probability entirely prevent the insured member from engaging in employment or take part in any paid work of any and every kind for the remainder of his/her life and from which there is no hope of improvement.

Physiotherapist

means a registered practitioner who is licensed to practice physiotherapy in accordance with the applicable laws of the country in which such practice is granted. He/she cannot be the insured member or the insured member's family member, or his/her business associates including any business partner, employers or employees.

Pre-existing conditions means any injury which the insured member has had symptoms; has been diagnosed; known or unknown; regardless of whether treatment or medical advice was actually received, prior to the commencement of his/her insurance cover under this policy.

Reasonable expenses

means expenses paid for medical services or treatment which are appropriate and consistent with the diagnosis and according to accepted medical standards, and which could not have reasonably been avoided without negatively affecting the insured member's condition. These expenses must not be more than the general level of charges made by other medical service suppliers of similar standing in Singapore for the services and supplies.

Registered Medical Practitioner

means a doctor qualified in western medicine who is licensed and authorised in the geographical area they are practicing in to provide medical or surgical services. They cannot be the insured member or the insured member's family member or his/her business associates including any business partner, employers or employees.

Second degree burns means a burn which both the epidermis and the underlying dermis are damaged. We will not pay if the second degree burns is caused directly or indirectly by:

- a) any pre-existing conditions; or
- b) sunburn, in-door tanning, cosmetic tanning, or anaesthetic procedure.

Please refer to the Policy for the complete list of Definitions.

Some Conditions

Expenses covered by other sources

In the event an insured member is covered under:

- a) Any occupational insurance including any insurance effected pursuant to the Work Injury Compensation Act (Cap.354) and any revisions thereof;
- b) Any insurance coverage under the government legislation; or
- c) Other group or individual insurance excluding Integrated Shield Plan and its rider, the benefits payable under this policy shall be limited to the balance of the medical expenses incurred which are not covered or payable by any of the above listed policy under (a) to (c), subject to the benefit limits computed in accordance to the table of insured benefits or schedule page, and terms and conditions of this policy.

Subrogation

We can take over any rights to defend or settle any claim and to take proceedings in your name or any insured member's to enforce your or any insured member's rights, or our rights against any other person. You and the insured member shall cooperate fully with us in this respect and shall not do anything to prejudice our rights.

Right of recovery

We may recover any amount we paid for charges that are not covered under this policy or exceeded the maximum benefits limit as specified in the table of insured benefits or schedule page. The policyholder and/or the insured member shall fully indemnify and reimburse us for such amount within 30 days from the date of notice given by us requesting for reimbursement.

NUS Group Personal Accident Insurance (GPA)

Difference in opinions	In the event of any differences in opinions between our Registered Medical Practitioner and your Registered Medical Practitioner, our Registered Medical Practitioner's opinion shall prevail.
Aggregate limit of liability	The maximum aggregate limit payable under this policy for all of the sections arising out of 1 single event shall not be more than S$30,000,000, unless otherwise endorsed in this policy. In the event if the claims from all the insured members arising out of 1 such event exceed the aggregate limit, the amount shall be pro-rated among the insured members, subject to the maximum limit as shown in the schedule for each of the insured member.
Claims conditions	Before any benefits are payable under your policy, the insured member has to ensure that the following requirements are being met. (a) It shall be a condition precedent to our liability under this policy that all claims shall be notified to us within 60 days from the date of accident. All claims shall be made on our prescribed forms and submitted to us together with the original copies of receipts and itemised bills (b) Any information required by us for assessing the claim shall be furnished by the policyholder at the policyholder's expense. (c) Any benefits payable under this policy shall be paid to you or the insured member (or legal representative). Any payment to you or the insured member (or legal representative), and the insured member or your receipt of any benefit payable under your policy shall in all cases be deemed final and complete discharge of our liability under this policy. Failure to furnish notice within the time provided in this policy shall invalidate the claim unless claimant shows that it was not reasonably possible to give such notice within such required time and that notice was subsequently given as soon as reasonably possible.
Currency	We will pay all claims in Singapore dollars. If the insured member suffers a loss which is in a foreign currency, we will convert the amount into Singapore dollars based on the exchange rate on the date of the loss.

Please refer to the Policy for the complete list of General Conditions.
